California's Christmas

By JOAQUIN MILLER

The stars are large as lilies! Morn
Seems some illumined story—
The story of our Savior born,
Told from old turrets hoary—
The full moon, smiling, tips a horn
And hies to bed in glory.

My sun-clad city walks in light
And lasting summer weather;
Red roses bloom on bosoms white
And rosy cheeks together.
If you should smite one cheek, still smite,
For she will turn the other.

Give me to live in land like this,
Nor let me wander further;
Some sister in some boat of bliss
And I her only brother—
Sweet paradise on earth it is;
I would not seek another.

BABSON ANALYZES INDUSTRY AND SECURITIES

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., Dec. 19.—Roger W. Babson has just completed a survey of the equipment industry. His findings summarized in a statement issued today, are of vital interest to investors.

"The recovery in business conditions early this year, combined with increasing prosperity of the railroads, has brought unusual activity into equipment lines," says Mr. Babson. "The $223,000,000 program instituted was pretty well followed out. Increased efficiency of operation, combined with large deliveries of rolling stock, have permitted the railroads to handle the record car loadings of 1923 without difficulty.

"Last April the car service division of the American Railway association set up a goal for the railroads to meet by October, namely, a reduction of bad order cars to 5 per cent and of locomotives awaiting heavy repairs to 15 per cent. The market passed shortly before the time designated. The result of this situation, together with heavy deliveries of new rolling stock and increased efficiency of operation generally has been seen in ability to pass through a period of record car loadings with a surplus in the hands of the customer's shortage of cars.

"In a recent estimate the United States Chamber of Commerce set a figure of $7,875,000,000 as the possible equipment program for the next ten years. This gives an annual average substantially below that of the year just past even without consideration of probable growth of the country and transportation needs during the period mentioned.

"There are a number of important points to remember in connection with the equipment industry:

"(1) The increased prosperity of the railroads has made possible very heavy equipment buying with the result that any acute shortage has been fairly well rectified.

"(2) More efficient repairing has reduced 'bad order' cars to a minimum. Larger percentage than ever before is available for regular duty.

"(3) Tendency toward greater efficiency of operation, or, in other words, increased car miles, tends to cut down needs in this respect.

"(4) Business conditions are not sufficiently promising for the immediate future to indicate any equipment needs comparable to those existing at this time a year ago. General business as reflected on the Babsonchart is now running 7 per cent below normal.

"Under the conditions outlined equipment companies must look for a slackening of demand. Those railroads which are able to exceed 5 per cent return on total bonds and stocks, the amount permitted under the Transportation Act of 1920, before consideration is given to the so-called Recapture Clause of that act, may logically be disposed to place a considerable portion of the excess in maintenance and equipment. This is not, however, a factor that should loom large in the 1924 situation. The possible desires in this direction will be checked by recognition of the abnormal equipment program which has been enforced this year and the relative business needs of the future.

"There is nothing in the immediate situation in respect to stocks of the companies concerned which sets them apart from the stock market as a whole," continued Mr. Babson. "The various issues listed on the Exchange have shown a very different price trend than that of the general market. Contrary to the average of industrial securities, the equipments sold at far higher levels in late 1922 and early 1923 than were seen in either the 1916 or 1919 markets. The relatively conservative course that has been followed in respect to dividend payments is largely responsible for this. Earnings in 1922 were actually far below the showing made in any of the years 1916 to 1920, inclusive. It may logically be assumed, therefore, that the abnormal stock prices existing on a basis of earnings hardly better than 1913, must fall back on the factor of accumulated earnings.

"The prosperity of the war period has been taken by the more conservatively managed equipment companies as an opportunity to charge off large amounts for depreciation and put plants in A-1 mechanical shape and increase quick assets to such levels that substantial dividends can be paid out for some time even in the face of falling earnings power. This situation has really made a very definite and fundamental change in the position of equipment companies in general. No stocks will indefinitely follow a trend contrary to current earnings power and the future of these issues from the market standpoint obviously depends on their ability to earn a substantial return on current business. Because of the situation outlined, however, it would take long periods of very poor earnings before the stocks concerned could well be expected to return to pre-war levels.

"There seems room for continued reasonable earnings power with continued growth of the country and so long as the railroads are permitted to make a satisfactory return. Future market movements should find the standard equipments receiving their share of favorable attention. Considering the various factors discussed, together with the long time trend of commodity prices, however, there is certainly no reason for belief that these stocks will be an exception to the general trend of the market."

MEN RUSH FOR GOLD AS WARM WINDS MELT ALASKA ICE

[By Associated Press]

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Dec. 19.—Phenomenal weather in the late autumn, which took the form of warm chinook winds in the higher regions, has resulted in a stampede of prospectors to adjacent hills where they have staked many claims to be worked for placer gold in the spring.

The warm winds uncovered immense deposits of gravel, which were swept down to the rivers, leaving a new terrain exposed. Prospectors report thawing at great depths which were locked in perpetual ice. They believe that nature thus has left open rich auriferous gravels hitherto sealed.

On the west side of Turnagain Arm an avalanche 100 feet wide and a mile long rushed down a mountain, uprooting immense trees and cutting deep into the soil. Three ledges rich in quartz were revealed. The creeks of that region had given up placer gold in the past, and the news of the big slide sent every unattached man with an outfit into the mountainous region above the Arm. Claims were staked and since winter was closing in, the prospectors left to return at the first thawing of spring.

The chinooks prolonged the open season in the hills a month or more. It is predicted that this will result in an unusually early spring, as the usual early freeze-up was lacking and the blankets of snow prevented deep freezing later.

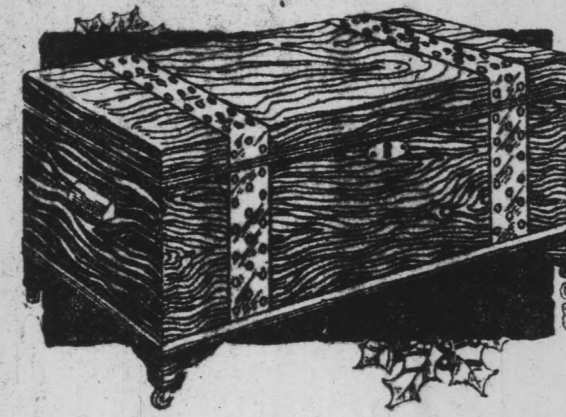

Long-time residents of Alaska believe that climatic conditions are undergoing a general change. They point to the recent deluge that put the southern division of the Alaska railroad out of commission for 20 days. The cloudburst, accompanied by a warm gale, denuded even the mountain peaks of snow. It has been customary for the first heavy snows to lie all winter. But this season, in southwestern Alaska, several times snow fell in quantity only to be melted again. Winter seemed reluctant to take hold.

Auto Camps
Should Not Be Allowed
in Residence
Sections.

A NEW organization came into being last night in Glendale. It will be known as the West Glendale Protective association and it was formed for the immediate purpose of keeping the city council from granting a permit for the establishment of an automobile camp on Riverdale drive and San Fernando road. Some time ago, for many reasons, the city council revoked a permit for an auto camp at this location. Since that time the camp has changed hands and pressure has been brought to bear to get the Glendale city council to change its previous stand and grant the present owners a permit to operate.

A NEW AUTO camp under the most favorable circumstances adds nothing to the attractiveness of a city. In fact, as most of them are now operated they prove a distinct detriment. As a temporary abode to take care of new arrivals until a permanent home can be arranged for, they fill a need. In most cases, however, they are used as homes for a long period of time and in consequence are a detriment to both individuals and communities.

A NEW AUTO camp is not to be considered as an ideal place for the bringing up of children. A trip to any one of them will show that most of the families living there have many children. This condition may be brought about partly on account of the difficulty parents with children have in renting houses. In many cases this difficulty has been the means of the family buying a home of its own, the necessity furnishing the needed incentive.

IT is so easy to buy a home in California. It is nearly as cheap as to rent, and can be accomplished even without much ready money. We are against the permitting of any auto camp in a residence section of a city. As such camps fill a need, however, we feel they should be permitted to operate, but strict regulations as to the length of stay permitted should be specified and enforced.

IF this city would establish a camp as others have done and operate it on a charge basis of actual cost to operate all worry of control, both from a sanitary and a legal standpoint would be done away with, and the real problem of taking care of our prospective home-seekers answered.

FRED O'BRIEN, FAMOUS WRITER, TO ARRIVE ON KROONLAND

Bringing 425 passengers, the Panama Pacific liner Kroonland will arrive in Los Angeles harbor December 21 from New York. Tourists from the Atlantic seaboard and the middle western states make up a large proportion of the seagoers on the Kroonland. Aboard the liner are also a number of passengers returning to California to spend the holidays.

In the latter group are William Carr, three sons and two daughters who are coming to California to join Mrs. Mary Carr, known throughout the film world as "Mother Carr," and Frederick O'Brien, author of famous South Sea stories.

Among the prominent passengers aboard the Kroonland are Miss Margaret Watson, magazine writer, Henry Evans of New York, chairman of the American Fur group of insurance companies and Mrs. Evans, and E. T. Ford, manager of W. R. Grace & Company, at San Francisco and Mrs. Ford.

Pitiful Case of Destitution In Glendale; Parents, Nine Children

LET US RELIEVE THE NEEDY IN OUR MIDST

Nine Children, One a New Born Babe, Worthy Objects of Aid

"What man of you who having a hundred sheep and having lost one of them does not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness and go out after that which is lost until he find it?" Luke 15:4.

Parents' devotion to a handicapped child, even to the neglect of healthy children and to the extent of going through the utmost privations, is well exemplified today in Glendale.

Christmas may mean little to this family in which there is a new-born babe. Despite the opinion that there are no poor people in Glendale, it is in dire want. In the midst of prosperity, this family is in abject poverty.

A few weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Yoakum and family lived in Phoenix, Arizona. The aforesaid family consisted of eight children, Frank, 15; Grace, 13; Harmon, 11; Zona, 9; Everett, 8; Alice, 6; Ernest, 3, and Margaret, 20 months.

WILL JOIN 'BIG DANCE' SAY ROTARIANS OF BURBANK

The Burbank Rotary club held its regular luncheon meeting yesterday at the Sunset Canyon country club. The club voted to join with 25 other California Rotary clubs in a formal dinner dance at the Biltmore in Los Angeles on Jan. 5.

NEED MORE ROOM IN PENITENTIARIES

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 19.—If commitments of convicts to San Quentin and Folsom prisons continue in the future as they have in the past few years the state either will have to make extensions and additions to the prisons, or build a new penitentiary, said the annual report of the prison director for the fiscal year ending June 30, filed today with Governor Richardson.

"During the year," the report said, "as for several years past the number committed to prison exceeded the number released. The total number of prisoners in custody at the close of the year was greater than ever before in the history of the state."

"The increase in prison population is due to growth in general population, additions to the list of offenses punishable by imprisonment, and longer average sentences."

KING AND QUEEN OF GREECE LEAVE COUNTRY

ATHENS, Dec. 19.—King George and Queen Elizabeth, complying with the government's request that they leave Greece, embarked on the steamship Dapner for Rumania.

THIS IS WONDERFUL YEAR FOR GIVING, SAYS MRS. YARD

Mrs. E. D. Yard, head of the Glendale Welfare council, says that never in all her experience in helping to make a Merry Christmas for those who need it most, has she met with such a response as has poured in upon her and her fellow workers this year. A wonderful holiday treat will be provided for 27 Glendale families who will be the recipients of warm clothing made by girls of the sewing department of Glendale High, of toys fashioned by students of the mechanical arts and the art departments of the same school, of jams, jellies and money with which to buy Christmas dinners from the churches of the city, while the Exchange club has placed itself at the disposition of the council with instructions to call upon the organization for whatever may be needed in funds or service. The Y. M. C. A. will give dinners, the Boy Scouts have offered to aid in the distribution, and a Casa Verdugo boys' organization has asked to help. It is the real Christmas spirit at full tide, and it has delighted Mrs. Yard beyond measure.

FOOTBALL BOYS WILL BE AGAIN BANQUETED

Chamber of Commerce and Five Clubs Will Do the Honors

Glendale business men tomorrow night in the banquet room of the Central Christian church will be hosts, commencing at 6:30 p. m., to the High school "pigskin maulers" and places of honor will be occupied by the "Dynamiters."

An attendance of about 300 is expected at this function which is being put on by the Exchange, Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, the Realty board and Credit Men's association under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce.

A turkey dinner will be the feature of the evening. This will be prepared by women of the church and served by High school girls. Plenty-filled plates will be provided—especially for the gridiron stars.

The toastmaster of the occasion will be W. E. Hewitt, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

The message of welcome will be extended by Dr. Henry R. Harrower, who will pledge Glendale's support for next season's football team.

"How the Team Was Trained" will be explained by Coach Normal C. Hayhurst who admits that he is proud of the boys.

Four minute talks will be made by representatives of the interested clubs as follows: Owen Emery, Credit Men's association; George Karr, Rotary club; R. E. Johnston, Exchange club; A. L. Ferguson, Kiwanis club; Peter Hanson, Realty board; Secretary E. F. Sanders will speak in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce.

Glendale Union High school's band will add enthusiasm as will also club songs and school yells.

ELIMINATION OF AUTO CAMP IS DEMANDED

Riverdale, San Fernando Road Folk Say it Injures Property

Glendale residents owning property in the region of San Fernando road and Riverdale drive have renewed their fight against the Community auto camp, which for a year or so was operated until closed by order of the Glendale city council a short time ago.

Last night in a meeting held at the real estate office of L. H. Wilson, 1034 South San Fernando road, these property owners formed themselves into a permanent organization known as the West Glendale Protective association. After the organization was completed, it passed a resolution asking and demanding that the Glendale city council stand by its former action in revoking the permit for the camp. In this resolution, which was unanimously adopted, it was claimed that the camp is a decided detriment to the property in the immediate vicinity. This organization does not want an auto camp of any description in that locality.

Following this action with regard to the auto camp the organization voted unanimously in favor of the sewer bonds and pledged itself to do everything possible to help the bonds to pass. This vote was preceded by an explanation of the sewer proposition by Mr. Timanus, representative of the firm of Burns & McDonnell, the Glendale sewer engineers.

The meeting was called to order by R. E. Johnston of 440 South San Fernando road and the following officers were elected: R. E. Johnston, president; J. W. Rea, vice president; J. V. Rea, secretary; J. W. Rea, treasurer; J. W. Rea, auditor; J. W. Rea, clerk; J. W. Rea, reporter; J. W. Rea, reader; J. W. Rea, singer; J. W. Rea, prayer; J. W. Rea, benediction; J. W. Rea, dismissal.

EAGLE ROCK EASTERN STARS INSTALL OFFICERS

Last night the Eastern Stars held their installation of officers in the Masonic hall, 5052 Eagle Rock avenue. The first thing on the program was the address of welcome which was delivered very delightfully by Rudolph J. Tepper, junior past patron. Then the flower girls, Margaret and Virginia Tepper escorted the installing marshal and chaplain to the front, after which the worthy matron, H. Fannie Bailey, and the worthy patron, David M. Ward were also escorted forward, followed by the present officers, elective and appointive, the past officers, present matrons and patrons of the Eagle Rock chapter.

Mrs. M. J. Cary favored the gathering with a delightful piano solo, "Bubbling." Mrs. Grace A. Sexton was then installed as worthy matron, Mark T. Lee as worthy patron, and Ernie E. Tate as associate matron. Mrs. Margaret Tepper then gave a very pleasing soprano solo, with Mrs. Elizabeth Underwood accompanying.

Marguerite I. Spencer was then installed as secretary; Francis Bailey as treasurer; Gertrude Rose as conductress, and Ruby Bellinger as associate conductress.

This was followed by a violin solo, "The Son of Prizista," by Mr. Virgil Drengberg, with Miss Ethel Congdon accompanying.

The installation of the five points was next—Elma Parker as Adah, Laverne Thompson as Ruth, Adele Swanson as Esther, Eleanor Denman as Martha, and Pearl Richard as Electa, Marguerite Rytham was installed as warder and Charles Gayford as sentinel. A baritone solo was then given by Mr. Ratcliff, with Mrs. A. R. Rose accompanying.

At the conclusion of the program, both the outgoing and the incoming worthy matrons were given lovely presents.

MASS MEETING FOR SEWERS CROWDED

Many Spoke For and One Against the Sewer Bond Issue

Glendale's approaching sewer bond election on January 8 was discussed last night in the High school assembly room at a well-attended mass meeting. Discussion pivoted upon the subject of annexation.

The tentative contract between Los Angeles and Glendale, for which approval is sought, was explained, section by section, by Councilman Sam Davis. He denounced annexation as a means of solving the problem and expressed his opinion that a sewer system obtained under such a procedure would require twice as long and cost twice as much in taxes.

The cost of assuming the indebtedness of Los Angeles under annexation, according to Mr. Davis, would be greater than the cost of voting the $1,600,000 worth of sewer bonds, and still Glendale would have no sewer system.

John S. Knox of 455 South Central avenue took issue with statistics quoted by Mr. Davis. He offered contradictory statistics of his own which he asserted were just as authoritative. He was heckled considerably by the audience and was interrupted several times by jeers. He appealed to Chairman W. E. Hewitt several times for the courtesy of the floor.

"It is generally known in this community that I am an annexationist," declared Mr. Knox. "I look forward to the time when every part of this metropolis—be it part of one great metropolis—the greatest city in the world."

According to Mr. Knox, section

NEW BANK TO OPEN ON EAST BROADWAY AS BRANCH

C. C. Cooper, president, and J. V. Rea, vice president and cashier of the Federal Commercial and Savings bank, located at the corner of Brand and Wilson, announce the opening of an additional bank at 612 East Broadway, to particularly serve the needs of the residents of the eastern section of Glendale, on Saturday, Dec. 29.

This move was occasioned by the phenomenal growth of the Federal Commercial and Savings bank, which in the four months since its organization has built up over $500,000 in deposits, due, say the officers, to the loyal support of over a hundred stockholders, all of whom are citizens and property owners of Glendale.

The same broad and efficient policy which has met with such success in the parent bank will be observed in the East Broadway location which will be distinct in management and having its own advisory board consisting of such well-known citizens as Fred S. Dixon, well known local property owner and investor; Francis J. W. Henry, manager, Sierra Beverage company; R. M. Brown, proprietor Glendale Feed and Fuel company; E. E. Harrington, Glendale investor and capitalist; J. C. Sherer, city treasurer and prominent citizen, and Robert F. Adams of the Superior Printing company.

The officers will be C. C. Cooper, president; J. V. Rea, vice president and cashier, and Geo. T. Harness, assistant cashier, who will be in active charge.

AUTOS COLLIDE AT PARK AND CENTRAL

Machines driven by H. L. Kirkpatrick of 623 Orange Grove avenue, Burbank, and C. F. Kraemer, 1327 Vassar street, Glendale, collided at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the intersection of Park and Central avenues. "I was going south on Central avenue," reported Mr. Kirkpatrick, "and the other machine turned in front of me." Little damage to machines and none to occupants.

DR. GEORGE POMEROY SPEAKS BEFORE THE EXCHANGE CLUB

The Glendale Exchange club, which met at noon in the Egyptian Village cafe, had as its speaker Dr. George T. Pomeroy of Burbank, who spent two and a half years in the vicinity of the Holy Lands in the work of the Near East relief.

Mohammedan soldiers are stationed in the Church of the Holy Sepulcher at Jerusalem to prevent the Greeks and Armenians from coming to blows over the possession of the burial place of Him who came to preach peace and goodwill on earth. Dr. Pomeroy at Tarsus, witnessed Mohammedan troops en route to Jerusalem to help preserve order there Easter.

L. L. Purdy, projected upon a screen a pictorial film of the Holy Land.

Dr. Henry R. Harrower, club representative of Santa Claus, called attention to the performance of "Oh-Oh" which is being given Saturday night in the new high school auditorium for the benefit of the Christmas fund.

President D. Ripley Jackson, extended all present a "Merry Christmas."

BURBANK PROPERTY OWNERS OPPOSE AUTO CAMPS

The board of trustees last night received a petition signed by the Burbank Planning Mill proprietors and 22 others protesting against an auto camp grounds being located on Olive avenue near the S. P. tracks. These business men state in their petition that the site on which the proposed auto camp wishes to locate is in an industrial section and that it would harbor undesirable persons and would be a fire menace.

However, it was decided to hear both sides of the story and Mr. Roberts, who will own and manage the camp, submitted the plans of arrangement and samples of materials to be used for the buildings, for the inspection of the board. Mr. Roberts stated that on this four-acre tract on Olive avenue, he proposes to build 80 small houses of the material known as Celotex, insulating lumber; that they would be very comfortable, neat appearing and sanitary in all respects; that the streets would be oil tamped; that there would not be any tents erected and that the camp in general would be conducted in an orderly and high-class manner and under his own supervision, and would be an asset to the city of Burbank.

Mrs. May Clark, who owns the Santa Rosa hotel and property surrounding it on Olive avenue, addressed the board in regard to being approached with the petition that was circulated objecting to the party with the petition was laboring under the impression that it would harbor gypsies and all undesirable, with tents on the grounds, etc., but that she refused to sign the petition as she firmly believed that a clean orderly place of this kind was needed very badly in Burbank. She said she turned away from 10 to 20 people every day who are seeking lodgings, and that every apartment house in Burbank has been forced to do the same thing. Burbank is greatly in need of accommodations for tourists and travelers, and Mrs. Clark is strongly for it. Out of 18 families that stopped at the Santa Rosa, six bought property in Burbank through local real estate agents and will make this their home.

Roy B. Howell also addressed the board on the subject of auto camps in general, and the conditions he found the same when on his travels and said he believed the project of Mr. Roberts to be a worthy one that should be given every consideration. Mayor Crawford stated that the citizens signing the petition against the auto camp were very fair-minded people who evidently fear a fire hazard and the locating of undesirable and that they were probably laboring under a misapprehension. He suggested that Mr. Roberts interview them personally, setting forth his plans for their approval. However, if the camp is constructed it will be against the present building ordinance and it was suggested that the city attorney draw up an ordinance for auto camps.

FORD SAYS THAT COOLIDGE HAS MADE GOOD

Would Not Run Against Him on Any Kind of a Ticket

[By Associated Press]
LANSING, Mich., Dec. 19.—Nominating petitions entering Calvin Coolidge and Henry Ford as candidates in the presidential primary next April, were accepted by the department of state today.

The petition naming President Coolidge on the republican ticket were filed by Horatio S. Earle, James W. Helme of Adrian offered the Ford petition naming him on the democratic ticket. Both had sufficient signatures and the secretary of the state will inform the candidates that the petitions have been approved.

DETROIT, Dec. 19.—Henry Ford today declared he, "like a great majority of the American people," feels that the country is "safe with Coolidge," and that he himself would never consider running against Mr. Coolidge on any ticket.

"I believe it is the wise and natural thing for the people to agree on the nomination and election of Mr. Coolidge," Mr. Ford said. "I am satisfied that 90 per cent of the people feel perfectly safe with Coolidge and I feel, too, that the country is perfectly safe with him. And if this is the feeling of the country, why change?"

"Mr. Coolidge has shown in these months of service a great many qualities that should please his countrymen. I think they all feel that Mr. Coolidge means to do right. And when a man means to do right, so far as I have observed, it is usually quite easy for him to find the way to do right."

BRIEF OUTLINE EAGLE ROCK'S HISTORY AS A CITY

For the benefit of those who do not know, a brief history of Eagle Rock is given. It was obtained through an interview with one of our oldest and most respected citizens.

Eagle Rock was incorporated as a city on March 1, 1911, about 800 people were then living here. C. W. Young, local realtor, was the second city clerk, and for three years he did the assessing, at the same time, as there was not much to do. In 1914 he took a general census which showed that 1462 persons were living here. Out of 465 persons who were personally interviewed, about 50 were from Illinois, sixty from Iowa, fifty from New York, 40 from Ohio and sixteen were native born; the rest were from all over the union. The most prominent man of those days was Col. Eddy, whom Eddy avenue was named after. He was a retired soldier, and there was not much to do. In 1914 he took a general census which showed that 1462 persons were living here. Out of 465 persons who were personally interviewed, about 50 were from Illinois, sixty from Iowa, fifty from New York, 40 from Ohio and sixteen were native born; the rest were from all over the union. WONDERFUL HIKE HAS BEEN PLANNED FOR BOY SCOUTS

The Glendale Boy Scouts will start on their annual "snow ball" hike from the High school on Friday, December 28, at a. m. A large number of scouts from all over the district have signed up for it.

Machines will take the boys to the foot of the mountains in North Pasadena. From there the scouts will hike up the beautiful Arroyo Seco canyon to Switzer's camp. After plenty of good hot eats served by Switzer's camp the boys will gather about the great open fireplace in the "rock room" and enjoy themselves after the day's hike. There will be scout yells, scout songs, funny stories, adventure stories and a scary ghost story to go to bed on. The cold, snappy night will not bother anyone, as every scout will be snugly taken care of in a cabin or tent house with a bed with plenty of bedding.

After a hearty breakfast the scouts will hike by good trails to San Gabriel peak. Here a big snowball fight will be enjoyed, up among the pine trees. The scenery from here on is grand in the extreme. The scouts will arrive at the foot of the mountains near Altadena before dark and will be met by the machines for the home journey.

The boys will be accompanied by scoutmasters and the Verdugo Hills Council Boy Scout executive. The Scout executive, who was formerly in the U. S. forest service, has already made this trip a number of times with large groups of Los Angeles scouts. Plenty of snow was always encountered on these former Christmas hikes.

All scouts who wish to take this wonderful hike will make application to Scout headquarters, 103 1/2 South Brand boulevard, by Wednesday night, December 26. The trip will be limited to the first 75 scouts who make application. No applications will be received after next Wednesday evening.

LA CRESCENTA NOTES

The organization of 16 fire districts in the county which was approved by the board of supervisors at Los Angeles Monday, was good news to the residents of the La Crescenta valley, as one of these will be located in this district. This idea of forming five districts throughout the county originated with George Dunlop, one of La Crescenta's most prominent citizens. Mr. Dunlop brought the matter up before the La Crescenta Improvement association. The committee appointed by the association has been working on the formation of these five districts for the past year. The fund for the operation of these stations will be raised through taxation in districts where they are located. For the present stations will be located in temporary quarters rented for this purpose, but as soon as the funds for their maintenance are collected, permanent buildings will be erected and volunteer crews will be replaced with a trained staff of fire fighters.

The community Christmas tree celebration at the school auditorium last evening under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher association will always be a happy memory to all the children of the La Crescenta valley. One huge Christmas tree in the center of the patio with two smaller ones at the entrance of the auditorium, a profusion of greenery and bright colored lights with a Santa Claus presiding, were the happy features of the evening and the attendance was the largest gathering in the history of La Crescenta. The program given by the pupils of Montrose and La Crescenta schools was most elaborate and enjoyable. Much credit is due Albert Bradford, principal, and his splendid corps of instructors for its success. The program, in three parts, included "The Toy Shop," which was delightfully given by the lower grades; Christmas carols by the upper grades; and selections from "Birds' Christmas Carol," entitled "Ruggles in the Rear," which concluded the enjoyable program. That the school auditorium is too small was realized last evening, when hundreds of people were turned away who could not gain entrance.

DIRECT ACTION STOVE WOULD MAKE FINE GIFT

"What would make a more appreciated gift for the housewife than a Direct Action stove," asks Mr. Merrill, manager of the stove department of Coper & Taylor, 209 South Brand.

And, judging by the way dozens of stoves are going out, Mr. Merrill had hit the keynote, for there is nothing better than a good stove for the woman who takes pride in her home and desires to make the home life worth while. During the past few days it has been necessary to employ extra help to take care of rush orders and many Glendale homes will have a Direct Action stove with which to cook the Christmas turkey. Mr. Merrill asks those desiring to add a new stove to their gift list to come around and inspect the no-bottom-in-oven, Direct Action stove.

MADAME RAVEN WILL HELP ENTERTAIN CANADIANS

Madame Raven, the prominent English soprano, who is at present sojourning in Los Angeles, will delight the guests at the Canadian New Year's banquet and ball, with her remarkably sweet soprano voice. Through the extreme flexibility and beauty of tone of her voice, Madame Raven has made an envied name for herself, which has culminated in her winning the open scholarship at Trinity College, London.

In addition to Madame Raven there will be several other prominent artists taking part in a program that will be extremely high class and entertaining. The Canadian banquet and ball will be held in the Biltmore hotel on December 29th at 7 p. m. Naturally for a function of this nature accommodations are restricted to 500 guests. Those wishing to secure the few remaining reservations can do so either by letter or personal call from the acting Canadian secretary at the Biltmore hotel or from W. Austin Campbell, 914 Merchants National bank building, or Dr. Lyn Cole, 606 Story building.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Cole of 122 Arden avenue are leaving Glendale around the first of the year for San Francisco. Mr. Cole has been made manager of the office of the Lord & Thomas advertising agency, recently opened in the northern city. Mrs. Cole is very reluctant to leave Glendale.

McCourt are eagerly looking forward to the arrival on Saturday of the sons of the respective families, Waldo Yard and Bob McCourt who have been attending school at the celebrated Agricultural College at Corvallis, Ore. They will come by train because the roads in the north at this season are too bad to encourage motoring.

EDITORIALS BY THE PEOPLE

Glendale, Dec. 18.
Editor Daily Press.

Dear Sir:—
Tunjunga and Sunland citizens threaten to patronize San Fernando merchants, rather than come to Glendale again.

Today, in the midst of Christmas shopping, wholesale tagging of cars took place on Brand between Broadway and Harvard, though this district was not placarded to warn motorists of the new ordinance prescribing hour parking, and several of the above-mentioned citizens who innocently violated the ordinance because they had no warning, stated in the future their buying would be done in San Fernando or Burbank.

Merchants— isn't this a direct blow at your business? If you are to prosper, you should insist that such warnings be posted.

CHILDREN OF TUESDAY CLUB MEMBERS ENTERTAINED

Children of Tuesday Afternoon club members were guests at a most delightful program given on Tuesday in the auditorium of the club house following a short business session in charge of Mrs. Daniel Campbell. Among the interesting announcements were the following: On Friday, January 11, the music section meeting will be open to all club members. Mrs. Pearl Keller and her pupils will give a lecture-recital. On the evening of December 31, 1923, a New Year's Eve party will be given for the young ladies and young men members of families of Tuesday Afternoon club members. All sons and daughters of high school or college age, of club members will each be privileged to bring one outside guest. Music for dancing will be furnished by the Glendale Rainbow orchestra. For those not caring to dance, games will be provided.

At the silver offering taken for philanthropic work at the club meeting last week, $21 was collected. This amount of money will be divided among several organizations. Part of it will be used to supply a basket to be given to a needy family in Glendale, while some will be used to purchase articles for Rest Haven, an offering for the Orthopaedic hospital and County hospital, King's Daughters Day Nursery, Maternity Cottage and other institutions.

The next regular club meeting will be the second Tuesday in January and will not be a luncheon meeting. Miss Ruth Hutchinson, soprano, will give a recital. Mrs. Roger Sterrett, Los Angeles district chairman of motion pictures, is to give a short talk during the business meeting. On January 15, at the meeting of the Bible section, Miss Rouzee will begin her regular course of work. This section meets at 11:15 a. m. and is open to everyone interested, whether club members or not. A check for $200 was turned into the treasury by the ways and means committee.

The entertainers for the afternoon were then introduced by Mrs. Campbell and gave a program which included the following numbers: Margaret McCubbin and Lloyd McKinnon, both of whom have appeared at Grauman's Metropolitan. "The Hunt Dance," which was presented by them in costume including the brilliant red hunting jackets, white breeches, etc.; toe dance by Betty Wonder; sword dance by Alex McDougall of Glendale in real Scotch costume; readings by Ethelwyn Kent of dale, "The Left-over Doll," "Christmas Secrets" and "She Paints;" "Gypsy Dance" and Tommy Wonder, who with his sister, has appeared before Glendale audiences at the local theatres and in other professional engagements; "Irish jig," in typical Irish costumes, by Margaret McCubbin and Lloyd McKinnon; reading by Ethelwyn Kent, "Learning My Tables;" "Highland Fling," by Margaret McCubbin and Lloyd McKinnon, accompanied at the bag pipes by Alex McDougall. This was quite a novelty for the children as many of them had not previously heard this instrument played. The closing number was a "Novelty Dance," by Tommy Wonder and dummy partner, which created quite a furor. Holiday greetings were extended to all by Mrs. Campbell and the meeting then adjourned.

SANTA CLAUS TO GIVE "OH HO" SHOW SATURDAY NIGHT

In fostering the "Oh-ho" show, the Exchange club of Glendale is offering the Glendale public the biggest theatrical bargain that has ever been known here. This production has always been seen at prices ranging as high as two dollars. But the Exchange club is presenting "Oh-Ho" show at the bargain price of fifty cents. Every seat in the house is being reserved, and every seat is at the same price, fifty cents. It is a foregone conclusion that the new high school auditorium with its seating capacity of more than 2000, will be filled to capacity for "Oh-Ho" Saturday night. Reserved seats for the production go on sale on Thursday morning at Roberts and Echols' drug store, corner Broadway and Brand. "Oh-Ho" has scored tremendously wherever given in California. The show here was accorded the praise of being the best thing that has ever been staged in this city with local talent, and surpassing most of the professional shows. Santa Claus is giving the "Oh-Ho" show. All the money made on the show will be used for buying presents for Glendale's needy children, that they may have a happy Christmas the same as the boys of the families that can afford to supply what Santa Claus has been asked for.

Dr. H. R. Harrower is chairman of the show committee of the Exchange club handling the "Oh-Ho" show, and Captain D. Ripley Jackson is president of the club. "Oh-Ho," Saturday night, new Glendale high school auditorium. Reserved seats ready Thursday morning. These are good things to keep in mind with the holiday rush.

TUESDAY WAS HAPPY TIME FOR BROADWAY KIDDIES

Children at the Broadway school had a very happy day on Tuesday. In the afternoon the children gathered in Miss Thompson's room and sang songs and also gave a play-let. The Broadway Parent-Teacher association distributed candy canes to each of the 300 children in the school. Miss Ryan and the teachers were remembered with a red jardiniere stand. Mr. West, the janitor, was remembered with a check. The exercises closed the children's work until after the Christmas holidays.

Truths in Epigram

The truest end of life is to know that life never ends. — William Penn.

He that does evil that good may come pays a toll to the Devil to let him into heaven. — Augustus Hare.

Never does a man portray his own character more vividly than in his manner of portraying another's. — Jean Paul Richter.

TESTING THE BRAIN

Doubtless there are scientific methods of testing accurately the intellectual powers of the individual. Certain systems that have been employed for the purpose have been proved useless. Some minds will react to a catch question, instantly recognizing its real character. Another mind, more capable of functioning along a higher plane than that of puzzlement, will be deceived. An honest mentality assumes the honesty of other minds, and may not be alert for trickery. People of rather fine capacity and achievement have emerged from such tests credited with the development of a child of six years.

To the lay observer examinations of this sort often fail to carry conviction. For example a man has reached maturity, has reared a family, earning a living the while. He commits burglary, for example, and burns the premises so as to conceal the crime. The savants put him through the usual course, and then announce that his mentality is that of a boy of, say ten years. No normal boy of ten years ever could have the courage to enter a house alone at night for the purpose of robbery. The plan of setting fire to a house he had robbed does not bespeak the lad of mischievous spirit, but the hardened and deliberate criminal of seasoned years.

Because minds are different in their operations, does not seem to be adequate reason for condemning one type or the other. One man will be an expert checker player, realize the profundity of the game, as Edgar Allan Poe realized it. Another man is unable to see anything in the game but a foolish pushing about of discs of wood, and any opponent with an inkling of the science of checkers, could defeat him with ease. One will be entranced by the game and the other bored by it. Yet in the practical affairs of life, in grasp upon vital situations, there might be no essential variation in the conduct of the two.

The two boys who recently committed a deliberate murder are to be examined as to the quality of their brain. The court desires to be informed as to the mentality of the pair. The information seems to have been set forth fully in their crime, and their subsequent attitude towards it. They are close to the verge of idiocy. In view of known facts, any decision not embodying this view would be received with utter lack of faith.

THE REAL INDIAN

The American Indian never has been given a chance. There has been nothing to prevent his having attained the status of useful citizenship, but the studied stupidity that has marked the course of the white man towards him. The story has been told too often to need repeating here even in part. It is a shameful story, and no pride is stirred by contemplation of it. In a word, the Indian from the time of the landing of the Pilgrims on these shores, has been deprived of all his rights. He has been robbed, bamboozled, hustled out of his home regardless of treaty promise. And all the time this has been going on, there have been more or less maudlin expressions of concern over his temporal and spiritual welfare.

Recently an Indian girl, student at Mount Holyoke, had luncheon at the White House. She is quoted as having said on that occasion:

"We don't want any Government-Providence looking after us. We want a chance with other Americans. We don't want to be kept 'in out original state of savagery,' for tourists and artists to look at us, and slushy sentimentalists and writers to write about us."

This is a clear statement of the truth. The Indian is the real American. He is capable of taking care of himself if the government would give him the chance that is open to any alien immigrant who comes to this country.

MONOPOLY OF THE DYE TRADE

Long before the war Germany had made the effort to wreck the dye industry save as controlled by German capital. The war interfered with this plan. Such an emergency was created through the lack of dyes and chemicals that always had been imported from Germany, that American enterprise had to undertake the experiment of supplying the demand. A measure of success was attained, but with the close of the war Germany renewed the former effort to monopolize the business. In the absence of tariff protection, the Americans were at a great disadvantage. Millions of dollars that they had put into plants were lost, as the plants were forced into idleness.

The question of tariff protection for the dye industry seemed to be distinct and separate from all others. The situation was merely that with reasonable protection, the industry could continue; without it, operations must cease. Then consumers in this country would be at the mercy of a foreign monopoly. The first and openly avowed purpose of the foreigners was to crush the American industry. Having done this they would be at liberty to unload whatever quality of goods they chose, and by sending inferior stuff, soon recover the loss due to the cost of killing off a rival.

It is singular to reflect that the Germany that has the capital to devote to the ruin of American business, and the desire to put the capital to use, is the same Germany that, professing dire poverty, is asking this country to save it from starvation.

THE KELS CASE

The Kels case may be regarded as typical. Devoted of all the rumors of scandal, it stands out as the ordinary and apparently inevitable attempt to save a murderer from the penalty of his crime. Kels is the man who hired a wandering stranger, killed him with the utmost deliberation, and by incinerating the body, sought to have it recognized as his own. In this manner he purposed to cause the payment of a large sum of insurance to his wife as a supposed widow. Kels also was in business troubles from which he desired to be free by leaving the country.

When caught the criminal confessed every detail. He realized that denial would be useless. The same intelligence that had worked out an elaborate scheme of murder and theft, was keen enough to know when the game was up. There was nowhere the shadow of a mitigating circumstance. There was not a sign of insanity on the part of the prisoner, although in deference to custom, the usual tests were made. The jury could do nothing less than find the defendant guilty, and the court was morally and legally obligated to fix the punishment at death.

But no sooner had sentence been passed than efforts to save Kels were intensified. The pretext of insanity was advanced anew. Demands for more tests were made. Whether discovery of the fact that if Kels were hanged, insurance on his life would have to be paid, had anything to do with this activity, may be considered elsewhere. The truth is that when a murderer has earned the extreme punishment there is in almost every instance, a fervid effort to save him, and by doing so, to make a mockery of the law, and a farce of the trial.

In regard to disasters on the highways of southern California, one Sunday is much like another. There is variation in the number of fatalities, but otherwise the weekly tales are about the same. Accidents are inevitable in such a vast total of traffic, and yet a great majority of those recorded might have been avoided. Reckless driving is the explanation. Speed too high, signals ignored, and no attention paid to the rules of courtesy or common sense. Good drivers, proceeding with great care, become involved in smashes, because other drivers lack all the qualities that the man at the steering wheel should have.

Senator Borah wants Russia recognized. The senator already has extended the boon of his personal recognition. It is possible that Russia will have to be content with this.

Even a cheap man may be dear to some woman.

Fame usually costs more than it is worth.

Score One for Modern Education

By ESTELLE LAWTON LINDSEY

Perhaps many things are wrong with modern methods of education, but I ran into something a day or so ago that convinced me that they have sane areas.

A girl whom we will call Sara had trouble in high school. Her teacher sent her to a psychologist and the following report came back:

"Sara is normal and has an average mind; but she is mentally lazy. She can learn if she will."

So the teacher made an appeal to all the other teachers from whom Sara took work to join with her in making an assault on Sara's indifference and her tendency to easy discouragement with the purpose of helping her accomplish something.

Considering the distressing fact that for centuries people, especially children and slaves, have been punished for not doing what they could not do, it seems a distinct advance that we now have a method that determines what people can do. To punish for can't is a crime; to punish for won't a measure of justice.

Now if a child can do and refuses to do it is up to parents, guardians and officials to invent ways and means of making him do. Anyhow, the fact that such a report is available is a long step in the right direction.

In time it is possible that such reports will be kept on file for the guidance of employers and that children will understand that their school reports will have a distinct and important bearing on their future careers.

No employer, having before him such a report as the psychologist made after examining Sara, would consider Sara if he had the chance of employing a girl who was not mentally lazy and who was not easily discouraged.

And, oh my, would it not be delightful if families opposing the marriage of the juniors had such a file to refer to? It would save many a love torn girl and boy from walking into matrimony in a turkey dream and later walking out by the doors of the divorce court.

When you are talking about the drill, drill, drill of our grandparents think about the psychologist's report on Sara and take heart of hope.

WATCHING THE PARADE

By JOHN PILGRIM

Last night Doc Henneberry took me around to see Little Jimmy Doolan. Little Jimmy is fifty years old and about the size of a Kansas steer, but he has always been Little Jimmy to the gang. He has a complication in his innards.

"How you feeling, Jimmy?" asked Doc. Any pain?"

"Not so much," said Jimmy, smiling feebly. "Where does it hurt today?" asked Doc.

"Oh, said Jimmy, "it doesn't hurt so much. I can stand it."

And that's all Doc got out of the sufferer. Doc is an old, hard-headed, stiff-faced practitioner and he called Jimmy out of his name, but he could not get him to be candid about his hurts. Jimmy is vain. He wants to be talked about because of his courage in standing pain, although with every twist of his suffering vitals gave him he turned pale and the sweat stood out on his forehead. Doc Henneberry had to guess at his condition, aided by various experiments with the aid of test tubes and thermometers and blood pressure indicators.

"I may be right and I may be wrong," he said, angrily. "But if I could get that raw-boned idiot to tell me the truth my chances of guessing right would be better."

Lots of us are like that. We get into deep water financially, but rather than call for help we suffer in silence. Many a time a man and wife have had differences a little candor would dispel. But the vain one would not speak out.

"One of these days he'll know better," she has said. Or he, as the case may be. Ten years ago I quarreled with Frank Miller. A month later I found out that I had been wrong, but I haven't made up with Frank yet. Too confounded vain. Yet he had been a valued friend for years.

If you get a black eye do not blame it on the door. People only laugh.

JOINT MEETINGS OF MISSIONARY SOCIETIES

Women of the Glendale Presbyterian church had a full day Tuesday assembling at the church at 10:30 for the joint meetings of the Home and Foreign Missionary societies. Mrs. George McDill, president, introduced the speakers on the program which had been arranged by Mrs. Wells, program chairman, who spoke on Syria. A talk on Persia was made by Mrs. David Boyd, and Mrs. Giltman told of her experiences with a colony of Mormons in Idaho, where she formerly lived. Mrs. L. Z. Hesse led devotional exercises and gave a Christmas lesson, and Mrs. D. F. McRae reported on the Presbyterian. Mrs. R. W. Mottern described work among the lepers and a generous Christmas offering was collected for hospital 66, where lepers are cared for.

A big box was packed for the Indians at Tucson, the gifts including toys, candy and articles for their comfort.

Cards and gifts were also turned in which will be sent to Mrs. Martin, a former member of the missionary society who is now matron of the Mary Holmes seminary at West Point, Miss. She is convalescent from quite a serious operation and needs Christmas cheer. Members were delighted to welcome back to their ranks Mrs. Runyon who has been absent for 11 months with friends in the Middle West, also Mrs. Helffrich who underwent a major operation six weeks ago and is just able to be out.

The customary luncheon was served at 12:30 and followed by a business session of the Women's society which Mrs. J. A. Newton, president, conducted. The balance of the afternoon was devoted to sewing on comforters and towels.

REBEKAH'S CHRISTMAS DANCE PLANS COMPLETE

Arrangements for the Christmas dance were completed at the regular meeting of the Rebekeh lodge of the Odd Fellows' hall with Mrs. Evelyn Hall, noble grand, presiding. The dance is to be held at the I. O. O. F. hall on December 22, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. There will also be cards, for which prizes will be awarded. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Four new members were initiated at last night's meeting. There was a large number of visitors present from other states. Open installation of officers recently elected is to be held on New Year's Day at 8:30 o'clock. The Friday Afternoon club of Rebekahs will meet this week to make preparations for a play to be given in February.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. Cogle and her committee served refreshments.

COMMUNITY BAND'S LAST REHEARSAL THIS EVENING

Last rehearsal of the Glendale community band before the Christmas program will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the music room of the high school. The band is to work on selections to be played at the community Christmas celebration next Monday night. There will be no special rehearsal of the Glendale Choral club tonight, as had been previously announced.

ARTS AND CRAFTS SECTION TO MEET JANUARY 3

IRISH LINEN STORE IS FEATURING MANY SPECIALTIES

The Irish Linen Store, 117 North Brand, is featuring several specials during the few remaining days of Christmas shopping, many articles being underpriced for the big wind-up.

This has been the busiest Christmas season this store has ever known," states Mr. Lauderdale, proprietor, "and the only way we could handle more business would be to add more floor space. Our stock has been renewed and replenished several times during the past two months, and we are exceedingly gratified for the large volume of business."

Hundreds of articles of pure linen, imported from Ireland, are offered to the late gift buyer, including sheets, spreads, table cloth and napkin sets, towels, and many others. A full line of ladies' furnishings and dry goods is carried, with a small, but complete stock of men's goods.

A concert will be given by the Burbank municipal band in the Edison school auditorium on next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. There will also be a number given by a quartet composed of Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Gladys Fisher, Mr. Shock and Mr. McIntosh. The girls' glee club will give several numbers and all together it will be a delightful program. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The city library will move into its new quarters in a large room in the Thompson building on the corner of Orange Grove and San Fernando boulevard, some time next week. Trustee Hama being unable to secure the store formerly decided upon on South Olive avenue. However, the new quarters will be bright and airy and the time for the closing of the library will be extended to 9 p. m. in place of 6, giving the working people a chance to use it.

ALUMNI DEFEATS SAGEHEN QUINTET

The Pomona college basketball team went down to defeat last night to the alumni five by a score of 26 to 18 at Claremont. The grads led at the end of the first period of play by the score of 11 to 9.

The Sagehen varsity, in spite of its defeat, looked good. Judy, star center of the letter squad, starred with eleven points, while Merritt, varsity guard, turned in seven digits.

ROYAL STOCK CO. PRESENTS "SMILIN' THROUGH" AGAIN

The Royal Stock company, which made such a decided hit in "Smilin' Through," last Saturday night at the Tuesday Afternoon club theater, will present the same play again tonight, and also Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday afternoon.

This company has come to Glendale to stay. It is now a Glendale concern and will do its share and will hold up its end in advertising this city to the remainder of the world. "The best shows, by the best company in the best city in the best part of the country," is the motto of this company. Every member of this company is an artist. The organization comes from a run of six years in one city in the north—it is determined to remain here forever.

"We've nailed our shoes to the sidewalks of Glendale," said Mr. Royal of this company the other night, "and we simply cannot tear them loose."

TEACHERS' CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS LUNCHEON IN L. A.

Teachers' institutes are being held in Los Angeles and attendance being obligatory, the City Teachers' club is taking advantage of the fact and has its Christmas luncheon in that city today at the Elite on South Flower street, covers being laid for 150. A program of exceptional interest included talks by Superintendent of Public Instruction Will C. Wood, County Superintendent Mark Keppel, and Glendale Superintendent of Schools Richardson D. White. Three numbers were sung by the Glendale City Teachers' Choral club, viz., "I Passed By Your Window" (Erlahe Brahe), "A Bowl of Roses" (Heleny) and "Mellican Man" (Brugh). Two violin solos were contributed by Hazel Linkogel, "Span is a Dance," and "Serenade" by Kreisler.

PRESBYTERIAN S. S. PRIMARY PUPILS' CHRISTMAS TREE

Mrs. Roy D. King, superintendent of the primary department of the Glendale Presbyterian church Sunday school and a corps of workers were very busy today trimming a Christmas tree and perfecting arrangements for the Christmas party of the primary department, which was held in the primary room at the church this afternoon from 2 to 4. About 200 children were in attendance and a charming program was given by talented little folks who afterwards received Christmas treats. The offerings of money brought by the children were sent to the Presbyterian orphanage at San Anselmo.

The regular Christmas exercises for the older scholars and members of the church will be held Thursday evening and are in charge of Rev. Louis Tinning and Sunday School Superintendent H. L. Finlay.

ORATORIO SECTION NOT TO MEET AGAIN UNTIL JAN. 8

The Oratorio section of the Glendale Music club will hold no more meetings until the eighth of January, on account of Christmas and New Year's coming on Tuesday.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES AT CERRITOS AVE. SCHOOL

A beautifully decorated tree had been provided by the P.T.A. and a box and candy and nuts for each child. The really charming Christmas program included Christmas carols sung by groups of children, recitations and playlets put on by children of the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades and the "opportunity room."

Wm. T. Wallace of 1143 North Central is very seriously ill. He had been slightly ill for a few days and apparently was much better, when he suffered a relapse last night. The doctors have been in attendance and a consultation will be held some time today. He is the husband of Georgia Woodthorpe, well-known screen star. Mr. Wallace's many friends are hoping for a speedy recovery.

Mrs. William Reed and son Billy, of Los Angeles, are visiting Mrs. J. P. Clark of 606 North Orange street, for a few days.

HUNT & BOWERS SAY TRADE IS BEST EVER

The Hunt & Bowers furniture store at 117 South Brand, reports the biggest Christmas season since the opening of the store several years ago. "The demand for high-grade furniture novelties for Christmas gifts has exceeded that of last year nearly two-fold," was Mr. Hunt's statement this morning, "and our complete stock along this line has brought hundreds of buyers to the store during the past month."

In addition to a full line of small furniture, such as tables, chairs, footstools, smoking stands, etc., a complete stock of cedar chests is carried, several sizes being offered. Also a large assortment of trunks and suit cases is on display, wags, baby buggies, lamps and other small articles rounding out a well chosen stock.

BIBLE SECTION HEARS GREAT TALK BY MISS ROUZEE

Notwithstanding the strenuous demands of the holiday season an excellent audience was present for the regular meeting of the Bible section of the Tuesday Afternoon club on Tuesday morning, to hear talk by Winifred Rouzee who took as her theme the galleries in Rome and the pictures there to be seen of the Caesars and other characters famous in history. It centered on the era inaugurated by the birth of Christ. She called attention to the prophecy to be found in the scriptures that government would depart from the Hebrew nation when Shiloh, or the Messiah came; that as a matter of fact it did depart when the Jews yielded to the mandate of Caesar and registered as citizens of Rome and as Roman taxpayers. It was while Joseph and Mary were upon that very errand that Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea. She described the face of Tiberius Caesar who permitted the crucifixion of Jesus, and of Nero, to whom Paul, as a Roman citizen, appealed. She declared that the gospel as written by St. Luke, has been proved to be absolutely correct by archeologists. She told what new meaning flooded the declaration by St. Paul that Christ is the chief corner stone of the church when she learned that archeologists had discovered evidence at Jericho, the walled city, and elsewhere in the Holy land that human sacrifice was very often performed when any very important building or gateway was to be erected; that it was customary in the corner stone to put the body of some one to serve as a living sacrifice to the gods for the success of the structure. It had also been revealed that not uncommonly the builder offered his first born as a sacrifice. It would thus appear that God himself had offered his only begotten son to be the corner stone and living sacrifice in the church He thus founded.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH MEN'S CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS
New officers who will carry forward healthy activities of the Men's club of the Glendale Congregational church were elected at the regular monthly meeting held Tuesday evening at the church. Supper was served by members of the women's auxiliary at 6:30, and was followed by a business session at which the annual reports of officers were received and a review of the year's work presented. All were highly encouraging and promised great success for the club the coming year.

Officers elected were H. C. Wilcox, president; R. D. Boyes, vice president; Ralph Hait, secretary; W. Q. Widdows, treasurer. A vote of thanks was given the retiring officers for diligent service during the past year.

ART SECTION HEARS MOST INSPIRING TALK
An inspiring talk was made by Mrs. Erma Sears of Pasadena before the art section of the Tuesday Afternoon club at its regular meeting Tuesday morning in which she urged conservation of the natural beauty of California and an effort to bring buildings and landscape architecture into harmony. She believes it is time club women endeavored to educate the public in the principles of art along these lines and to secure the appointment of art commissions to pass upon the plans of subdividers of tracts, also upon plans for houses thereon, all to the end that natural beauty may be conserved and enhanced.

WINDOW DISPLAYS ALLURE, CORNWELL & KELTY STORE

The windows of the Cornwell & Kelty hardware store at 107 South Brand are attracting a great deal of attention with their wonderful displays and decorations. The windows are garished with artificial snow, icicles, holly wreaths and other holiday decorations, all of which are symbolic of Christmas time.

In one window is a group of sporting goods, such as golf clubs and bags, footballs, and other out-of-door paraphernalia suggestive of winter sports. The other large window is crowded with many useful articles for the home, such as aluminum ware, carving sets, heaters and other gift suggestions for the householder.

The windows are but suggestive of the enormous stock of gifts to be found inside the store, and the firm is busy filling orders for high grade Xmas gifts that are appreciated and useful.

Old-Time Observers Got Answer in Skies

PRAGUE, Dec. 19.—From time to time Prague gives up to some persistent deliver in records of the past that are not without interest. For it is an ancient city and its museums and bookshelves are filled with chronicles of what its people said and did in other centuries. A recent discovery is an old book on astronomy which shows that the men of that day spent no little time in endeavors to read what they called the "enigma of the ages," in other words, their woman-kind.

Based on the influence supposed to be exerted on humans by the constellation of the planets in the month in which they were born, this volume analyzes girls, according to the calendar, as follows:

A girl born in January is very likely to become a good housewife. She will incline to melancholy, but will have a gentle disposition. February girls will be good mothers, and faithful.

March maidens, however, will be inquisitive, contentious and quarrelsome, while April babies will grow up to be mercurial and unsteady women.

May guarantees merry and good-tempered girls, while June gives them passion and fiery temperaments, with an inclination to superficiality.

July produces the roses among women, according to this old sage; beautiful but thorny. Born a month later they are amiable and sensible, but rather keen for rich husbands.

Girls born in September are of fine susceptibilities and always ready to help others; they will, therefore, be welcomed everywhere, but should guard against being imposed upon by selfish people. October favors the earth with creatures who surpass all others of the sex as to depth and ardor of love.

Women born in November are kind-hearted and friendly; if they are not it is always the fault of somebody else, never their own.

The last month of the year brings forth racy and very good-looking girls. Unfortunately they cannot be recommended to earnest men, for they are very extravagant and always on the hunt for sensations.

PRAGUE EXPECTS TO EXPORT SUGAR

[By Associated Press]
PRAGUE, Dec. 19.—The sugar crop of Czechoslovakia is so good this year that, after meeting local needs to the extent of 330,000 tons, the republic will have 670,000 tons for export.

Hoppe, Billiard Prodigy as Child, Grooming Little Son to Hold Championship

Willie Hoppe, world's champion 15.2 ballplayer, learned the game when he had to stand on a chair or a soap box to manipulate his cue. William F., Jr., takes after his daddy, as the above photograph shows. It was taken after receipt of a telegram from Welker Cochran, one of Hoppe's most dangerous opponents, announcing the birth of a son and that he challenged the 4-year-old Hoppe in behalf of Cochran, Jr.

SENTINELS OF SEA ARE SELF ACTING

The United States lighthouse service now has in commission more automatic apparatus than any other country in the world, according to the annual report of Light-house Commissioner George F. Putnam, submitted to Secretary Hoover and released today by the department of commerce. Of 4,047 coast and lake lights, 1,665, of 41 per cent, are automatic, doing the work of 765 lighthouse keepers and assistants. In addition to 668 lighted buoys which could not be maintained by human attendance and which are invaluable aid to mariners are automatically operated. During the year 30 stations have been changed to automatic, with an annual saving of 76 per cent of the cost of the changes.

The total number of aids to navigators now operated by the light-house service is 16,888. Among notable improvements of the service during the fiscal year are increased number of radio fog signals, a new lightship on Nantucket shoals, new lights in Raritan bay and connected waters of New York and New Jersey, automatic lighthouses on Molasses reef and Jacif reef (two important unlighted stretches of the Florida reefs), 19 additional lights in Alaska, etc. Twenty-five fixed lights were changed to flashing lights. Two mine planters obtained from the war department were converted into tenders at a saving of $448,000 and many other economies in operating costs were made, accompanied by steady improvement of plant and service.

Eight radio fog signals are now in operation, three having been added during the year, one at Cape Henry, Va., one on the Diamond shoals lightship in North Carolina, and one on the Blunt reefs lightship off Cape Mendocino, California. Five additional radio fog signals are being installed in lightships at Boston, Mass., Five Fathom Bank, Del., Swiftsure Bank, Wash., in the Columbia river, and off the Straits of Fuca. These instruments furnish, with proper precautions, bearing approaching the accuracy of visual bearings, and are available at greater distances.

Recommendations for the further betterment of the service include replacement of certain light vessels, improvements at certain lighthouses and supply depots, and legislation extending the retirement law and relief of personnel in other ways, especially in adjustment of pay schedules.

Different Bars in English Court House

[By Associated Press]
LONDON, Dec. 19.—Many American visitors and most English people know the law courts and have at some time or another visited the admiralty, divorce, probate and other divisions to hear interesting cases, but few know of the existence of various "bars" within the buildings which are properly licensed for the sale of intoxicants.

The biggest of these is the Crypt Bar, where all sorts of laymen and legal authorities congregate during lunch time and where as many actions have been settled between solicitors' clerks as those which come before the judge. There is a tiny little bar reserved exclusively for officials of the court, who boast they have the best "draught" ale in London, while another caters to the staff and police when the latter are off duty.

The refreshment department of the courts is large but provides homely fare.

U. S. Museum to Get Rare Specimens

[By Associated Press] LONDON, Dec. 19.—The American Museum of Natural History will shortly become the possessor of an excellent collection of stuffed animals and zoological specimens from India, the fruits of the recent Vernay-Faunthorpe expedition. The expedition was undertaken by A. S. Vernay, an Englishman, but for many years a resident of New York, and Colonel J. C. Faunthorpe, with the object of forming a complete collection of animals from the plains of India. Later it was decided to present these to the American institution.

The collection is by far the most complete and varied that has ever been obtained. The hunting of the animals in this case was most exacting as only certain specimens were sought in order to mount the animals in groups in the American fashion. About 90 such groups of rare animals as tiger, spotted deer, rhinoceros, wild elephant, snakes and ants will be included in the presentation.

One of the most remarkable results of the expedition is a motion picture showing many rare pictures of the Indian animals in their native haunts and showing the progress and difficulties made in hunting them. The picture was made by an American photographer for use in connection with zoological classes of the museum.

Many Librarians To Meet in Chicago

[By Associated Press] CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—The mid-winter meetings of the American Library association will be held here December 31-January 2. The association's council, league of library commissions, university, college and normal school librarians, Bibliographical society of America and the executive, editorial, educational and library training committees, will participate.

President Azariah S. Root of Oberlin college, Oberlin, O., will preside at the bibliographical meetings, which will be addressed by a number of middle-western college librarians on subjects relating to books for college students.

ANCIENT WOODEN IMAGES STOLEN

[By Associated Press] FEISTRITZ, Austria, Dec. 19.—Five wooden images of saints dating from the 14th century have been stolen from the parish church here. They rank among the finest and most valuable of medieval religious carvings and are well known to collectors.

It is believed that international art thieves were behind the theft as the peasantry not only revered the images, but it is doubtful if they had any idea of their value.

McGUIRE WROTE GREAT FILM, "SIX CYLINDER LOVE"

The man who wrote "Six Cylinder Love," William Anthony McGuire, which comes to the Glendale theatre today for the last times, had to live very close to the earth to turn out a story so close to everybody. This play ran a year in New York and then was produced in screen form. Young McGuire admits that he had not always had both feet on the ground, but has kept his ear glued to this terrestrial globe, so he might know how everything was going.

Every character in this picture is to be found in every fellow's home town, and just so can there also be found a similar story with the same complications, the same laughable embarrassments, and the same fun-making situations.

OLDEST ACTRESS IN "UNSEEING EYES" AT THE T. D. & L.

Claiming to be the oldest actress that ever donned a movie makeup, Mrs. Susan Dibo, a 103 year old Indian squaw, is now appearing in "Unseeing Eyes," which is coming to the T. D. & L. theatre. The engagement of the venerable squaw resulted from the fact that the film relates a story of life in the Canadian northwoods.

Mrs. Dibo declares she has never been ill and never had a doctor, outside of a medicine man on one or two occasions.

She faced the Kleig lights and cameraman in her film debut with all the assurance of a film veteran and is said to bring a most unique characterization to the screen.

THRILLING ESCAPE FROM PRISON IN "DESERT DRIVEN"

A thrilling escape from San Quentin prison during a terrific rain storm is graphically depicted in "Desert Driven," Harry Carey's virile western drama which is now crashing all box office records at the Gateway theatre. The struggle in the cell, the overpowering of the guard by Carey as the escaped convict, the race through the prison grounds, and the plunge over the prison wall is shown in one vast panorama of suppressed emotions in "Desert Driven." Carey never had a role more ideally suited to his splendid histrionic ability than that in "Desert Driven." The beautiful Marguerite Clayton plays the leading feminine role opposite Carey.

In addition to this thrilling feature there will be the usual Wednesday vaudeville, five acts. The better kind, you know.

CALIFORNIA LEADS UNITED STATES IN FOREST FIRES

SAN FRANCISCO.—"The worst forest fire state in the union." This in brief is California's national forest fire record for 1923, according to report of the U. S. forest service headquarters in this city, just made public.

More fires were started in the national forests of the Golden State this season than during any year since 1917. Out of the total of 1,267 fires that occurred, nearly 50 per cent resulted from lightning; the remainder, being due to human carelessness, and were, therefore, preventable. Of the man caused fires, tobacco smokers started 358 or 50 per cent and campers 117 or 16 per cent. Railroads, brush burners, lumbering and incendiaryism accounted for the rest.

The total area burned over by fires within the national forests was 173,257 acres, of which 145,437 acres were government land, and 28,820 acres private holdings. The forest service spent more than $100,000 in extinguishing these conflagrations.

In the Angeles, Santa Barbara and Cleveland national forests of Southern California there were 191 fires which destroyed the tree and brush growth on 127,430 acres. All but 10,000 acres of this total resulted largely from two big fires in the Santa Barbara national forest; the other southern forests experiencing an extremely favorable fire season.

In Northern California the Plumas national forest with 224 fires holds first place, followed by the Shasta forest with 152 fires, Lassen forest, 127 fires, and the Klamath forest with 103 fires. The Trinity forest had 26 incendiary fires, and the Plumas 16; the total of fires on all national forests due to incendiaryism numbering 76. The greatest damage by fire in the northern part of the state occurred on the California forests where 20,643 acres were swept by flames. The Mono national forest, on the east slope of the Sierras had only 6 fires which burned over 33 acres.

Eighty-six per cent of all fires that started in the national forests were extinguished by forest rangers and cooperators before they had covered an area of more than 10 acres each. Forest officers also handled 152 law enforcement cases against violators of the state and federal fire laws, and have secured convictions, to date, in 120 cases.

"There is little for Californians to be proud of in this record," said District Forester Paul G. Redington. "While there has been a slight decrease in the total number of man-caused fires in the national forests, there has also been a startling increase in the conflagrations directly chargeable to the users of tobacco. The 'tailor made' cigarette and the unextinguished match still continue to be the greatest enemies of our magnificent forests. It is surprising, also, to note the number of fires started by careless campers, especially in view of the intensive educational campaign that has been waged these many years by the forest service, state forester and other agencies throughout the state.

"Uncle Sam is a long suffering individual," continued the district forester, "but there is no question that unless there is a marked change, as regards fires, in the attitude and actions of the public that use the national forests as a summer vacation land, we shall be obliged to periodically close certain popular recreation forests, where there is a big fire hazard, to all forms of picnic and camp fires. In other localities we may have to place a ban on smoking in the woods, and require visitors who desire to build fires to use only designated camping and picnic grounds. The forest service now requires that everyone who intends to build a fire in a national forest secure a camp fire permit, on the back of which are specific rules in regard to the use of fire in the woods. But even this system does not give us complete immunity against conflagrations started by careless campers.

"The forest service would regret exceedingly," said Mr. Redington, "to have to issue orders restricting the public use of our national forests which cover the greater part of the mountain regions of the state and constitute a most popular playground. But if such action is taken, the public will only have itself to blame. One thing is certain—we have got to reduce the number of man-caused fires, and if educational methods fail to produce the desired results the government is prepared to take more stringent measures. I am confident, however, that with an awakening public sentiment in regard to the needless destruction caused by forest fires, and the unqualified support of the press, educational institutions, commercial organizations, women's clubs and citizens of the state, we shall be able to successfully solve the fire problem which is so vital to the prosperity and well being of California."

MANY ATTRACTIVE SPECIALS AT GORDON'S

Among the many first class stores of which Glendale can boast there is none busier than Gordon's, located at 119 North Brand. With a ripe experience in his particular line and with the sole aim in view of giving the most and best goods for the least money Mr. Gordon not only holds his trade, but is adding new customers daily to his already large list.

With the 1923 Christmas rush entering the final home stretch, many local stores are making specials for the coming week. Gordon's, the ladies' furnishings store, is one of these, and many exceptional values are to be offered during the remaining four days of Christmas shopping. Several new clerks have been added and the stock has been replenished for the big windup.

A complete selection of gift suggestions is to be found in this store, a big line of ladies' furnishings being carried. A line of gents' goods is also in stock, there being socks, ties, handkerchiefs, etc. Everything for the womanhood may be had in Gordon's.

A wealthy Irish-American was proud of the opportunity to "show off" on the occasion of a visit to New York of one of his compatriots from the "ould country." To dazzle him he invited him to dine at a fashionable restaurant. "Now, me boy," he said, "just follow me lead and we'll get the best of everything."

Seated at the table the host led off with—"Waiter a couple of cocktails." But his friend whispered audibly, to the waiter, "If ye don't moind, I'd rather have a wing."

The New ESSEX A SIX

Built by Hudson under Hudson Patents

Essex closed car comforts now cost $170 less than ever before. Also with this lower price you get an even more attractive Coach body and a six cylinder motor built on the principle of the famous Hudson Super-Six.

It continues Essex qualities of economy and reliability, known to 135,000 owners. It adds a smoothness of performance which heretofore was exclusively Hudson's. Both cars are alike in all details that count for long satisfactory service at small operating cost.

You will like the new Essex in the nimble ease of its operation. Gears shift quietly. Steering is like guiding a bicycle, and care of the car calls for little more than keeping it lubricated. That, for the most part, is done with an oil can.

The chassis design lowers the center of gravity, giving greater comfort and safety, at all speeds, on all roads. You will be interested in seeing how this is accomplished.

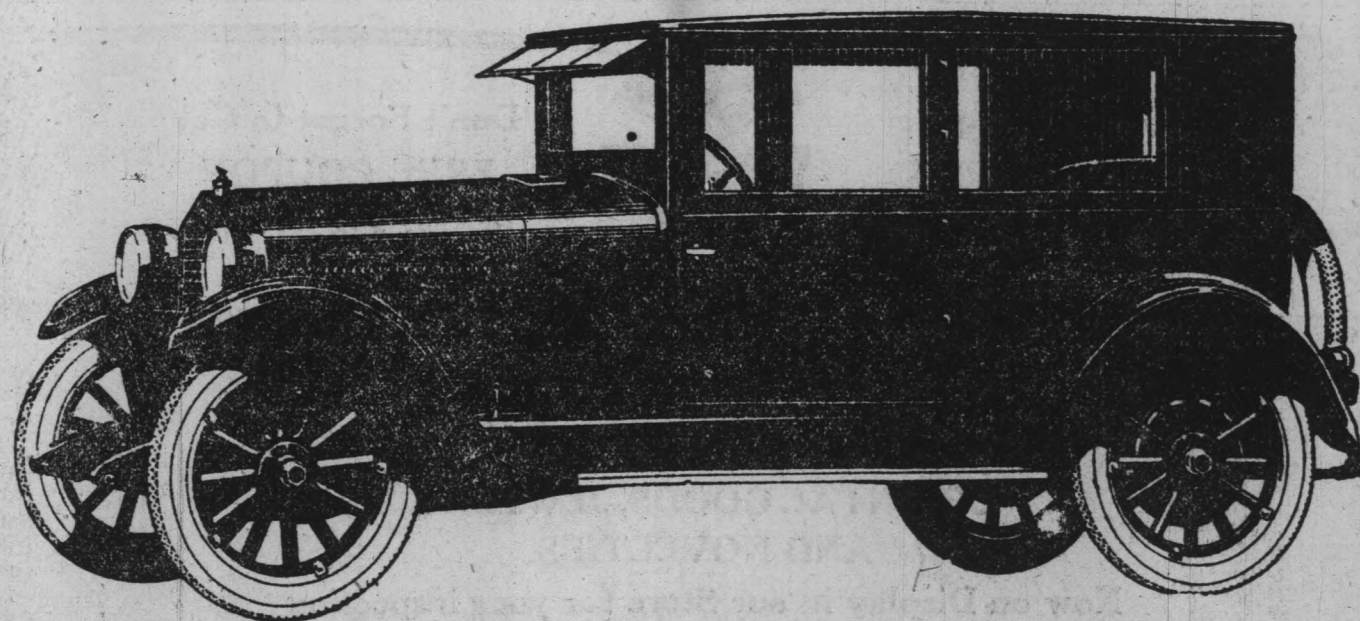

Greater fuel economy is obtained. The car is lighter, longer and roomier. You will agree that from the standpoint of appearance, delightful performance, cost and reliability, the new Essex provides ideal transportation.

MID-DAY LUNCHEON OF T. A. CLUB WELL ATTENDED

Though Christmas comes but once a year and every mother of a household is busy with preparations for the celebration of the great holiday, it could not keep all the loyal, devoted members of the Tuesday Afternoon club from their regular mid-day luncheon on Tuesday. Covers were laid for about 100 and two distinguished speakers were present, Mrs. Erma Sears who had addressed earlier in the day the art section of the club, of which Mrs. Roy Ballagh is curator, and Mrs. W. E. Mabey, chairman of music of the California Federation of Women's clubs, and chairman of church music for the National Federation of Music clubs.

Mrs. Sears is editor and manager of "California Southland," a magazine devoted to art, particularly architecture of buildings and landscape architecture. In beginning her luncheon talk Mrs. Sears congratulated the club on its beautiful club house, declaring in that one accomplishment its members had done more than most women achieve during an entire life time, because what children see on the streets through which they pass has more educational value than what they learn in schools. She declared the biggest art in California is landscaping because we have here a country whose natural beauty should be enhanced and not wrecked as it so frequently is by the blundering ignorance of the subdivider. She urged upon club women the study of these things before it is too late to conserve natural beauty, and the applause which followed her talk showed she had struck a responsive chord.

Mrs. Mabey talked on the subject of her special interest, "Church Music," and the effort that should be made to familiarize the rising generation with the beautiful classics of the early church, and to expel from the hymnal some of the jazzy atrocities that modern music publishers have introduced. She mentioned several of the fine old hymns, Christmas and other wise, giving their history and confided that she has in process of publication a hymnal suited to all denominations which includes these splendid compositions and the modern hymns as well.

As usual, Mrs. Daniel Campbell, president, introduced the speakers and announced songs for which Mrs. Alexander Mitchell played the accompaniment, and which all joined in singing. She also called the attention of members to the fine collection of 17 marines by George Colman of Balboa, hanging upon the walls of the banquet hall and to the catalogue of the pictures together with their prices.

The tables were charmingly decorated with miniature Christmas trees decorated with tinsel.

STAMPS SEIZED AS EVIDENCE IN QUACK DOCTOR DIPLOMA "MILL" AND IMPORTANT CONNECTICUT WITNESS

Five seals of defunct colleges, shown above, were seized in a raid on the home of "Professor" William P. Sachs in University City, Mo. It is alleged that they were used on fake diplomas which went to many sections of the country. With the seals were found fine pens, sensitized paper, spun glass erasers and blank official certificates. The insert shows "Dr." George M. Sutcliffe, who returned to Hartford, Conn., following his first disclosures about the "mill."

French Art Treasures Need Protection

[By Associated Press]

PARIS, Dec. 19.—The recent theft of two rare Gobelin tapestries from the Versailles palace has alarmed government authorities. The curators have not funds enough to police in really efficient fashion the palaces and museums where art treasures worth billions of francs are kept, but several short-cuts to safety have been proposed.

The first precaution was an order forbidding guards and guides to tell visitors of the great value of the treasures exhibited. "That would be tempting the devil," the curator at Versailles said.

The difficulty of guarding the palaces becomes apparent when it is realized that at Fontainebleau there are 2,000 rooms to be patrolled by a few guards, who much prefer to sleep.

The plans now before the authorities call for an electric burglar alarm system; flooding the outside of the buildings with light and providing the guards with police dogs. Another project is to use soldiers in the guarding of these art treasures.

EAGLE ROCK NOTES

The Chevrolet motor car, which was donated to the Catholic church by the McLean Motor Sales Co., Inc., to be drawn by number, was awarded to a Mr. Thompson of Los Angeles.

The Kiwanis club held its regular meeting yesterday noon in the Mountain View lodge. Frank Kean gave a brief talk, and the regular business was gone over.

The Episcopal church will hold its Christmas program in the rectory Saturday evening, at 7:30. A fine program has been arranged and all the children, especially, are eagerly looking forward to this occasion.

At 2:30 o'clock Thursday the World-Service society of the Congregational church of Eagle Rock will meet with Mrs. Glen Arbogast, 8212 Highland avenue, Eagle Rock. Mrs. Van Metter of Los Angeles is to complete the review of "Creative Forces in Japan," begun by Mrs. C. W. Young in October. Miss Gloria Harrison, by request, is to give an impersonation of a Japanese factory girl.

The postoffice reports a rushing business. Over a hundred sacks of mail and parcels are coming in each day and about seventy-five are going out. This is just double what it was three days ago, so the department is getting flooded. Already several machines and many extra men are now being employed to deliver them.

The Woman's Twentieth Century club will have a food sale at the clubhouse Saturday, from 10 o'clock on. Every kind of food you can think of will be sold, and this is a good chance to get eatables for the Christmas dinner. Mrs. C. B. Dirks of the ways and means committee is in charge.

A party for the children of the club members will be given Thursday, Dec. 27th, at 2:30. Reservations for this can be made by calling Mrs. Stevens, Garvanza 0774, or Mrs. Reilly, Garvanza 0259. A delightful program has been arranged for, and refreshments will be served. Members of the club who have no children may bring some other child.

Modern Version of New Testament

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO LUKE

Simon answered.
"The one, I suppose, for whom he canceled most."
"You are right," he said. And turning to the woman, he said to Simon,
"Do you see this woman? I came to your house; you did not give me any water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with tears and wiped them with her hair. You did not give me a kiss, but from the moment I came in she has not stopped kissing my feet. You did not put any oil upon my head, but she has put perfume upon my feet. Therefore, I tell you, her sins, many as they are, are forgiven, for she has loved me so much. But the man with little to be forgiven loves me but little."

And he said to her,

"Your sins are forgiven!"

The men at table with him began to say to themselves,

"Who is this man, who even forgives sins?"

But he said to the woman,

"It is your faith that has saved you. Go in peace."

Soon afterward he went about among the villages and towns preaching and telling the good news of the Kingdom of God. The Twelve went with him, and some women who had been cured of evil spirit and sickness—Mary, who was called Mary of Magdala, out of whom seven demons had been driven, and Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's manager, and Susanna, and many others, who provided for them with their means.

When a great throng was gathering and people were coming to him from one town after another, he said in his figurative way,

"A sower went out to sow his seed. As he was sowing, some of the seed fell by the path and was trodden on, and the wild birds ate it up. And some of it fell upon the rock, and when it sprang up it withered, because it had no moisture. And some fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up with it, and choked it out. And some fell on good soil, and grew up and yielded a hundred fold."

As he said this he called out,

"Let him who has ears to hear with, listen!"

His disciples asked him what this figure meant. And he said,

"You are permitted to know the secrets of the Kingdom of God, but they are given to others in the form of figures, so that they may look and yet not see, and hear and yet not understand. This is what the figure means. The seed is God's message. The ones by the path are those who hear, and then the devil comes and carries off the message from their hearts, so that they may not believe it and be saved. The ones on the rock are those who receive the message joyfully when they first hear it, but it takes no real root. They believe for a little while, and then in the time of trial they draw back. And what falls among the thorns means those who listen and pass on, and the worries and wealth and pleasures of life stifle them and they yield nothing. But the seed in the good soil means those who listen to the message and keep it in good, true hearts, and yield unflinchingly."

"Nobody lights a lamp and then covers it with a dish or puts it under a bed, but he puts it on its stand, so that those who come in may see the light. For there is nothing hidden that shall not be disclosed, nor kept secret that shall not be known and come to light. So take care how you listen. For people who have will have more given to them, and from people who have nothing, even what they think they have will be taken away."

His mother and his brothers came to him, but they could not get near him, on account of the crowd. And the word came to him,

"Your mother and your brothers are standing outside; they want to see you."

He answered,

"My mother and my brothers are those who listen to God's message and obey it!"

It happened one day that he got into a boat with his disciples, and said to them,

"Let us cross to the other side of the lake."

So they set sail. As they sailed along, he fell asleep. And a squall of wind came down upon the lake, and they were being swamped and were in peril. And they went to him and woke him up, and said to him,

"Master! Master! We are lost!"

Then he awoke and reproved the wind and the rough water, and they ceased, and there was a calm. And he said to them,

"Where is your faith?"

But they were frightened and amazed, and said to one another,

"Who can he be? For he gives orders even to the winds and the water, and they obey him!"

They made a landing in the neighborhood of Gerasa, which is just across the lake from Galilee. And then he landed, he met a man possessed by demons, who was coming out of the town. He had worn no clothing for a long time, and did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus he cried out and threw himself down before him, and said in a loud voice,

"What do you want of me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you not to torture me!"

For he was commanding the foul spirit to get out of the man. For it had often seized him, and though he had been fastened with chains and fetters, and was closely watched, he would snap his bonds and the demon would drive him away to the desert. And Jesus asked him,

"What is your name?"

He said,

"Legion!" For many demons had gone into him. And they begged him not to order them off to the bottomless pit. Now there was a large drove of pigs feeding there on the hillside, and they begged him to give them leave to go into them. And he did so. Then the demons came out of the man and went into the pigs, and the drove rushed over the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned. When the men who tended them saw what had happened, they ran away and spread the news in the town and in the country around. And the people came out to see what had happened, and they came to Jesus and found the man out of whom the demons had gone sitting there, at Jesus' feet, with his clothes on and in his right mind, and they were frightened. And those who had seen it told them how the man who had been possessed was cured. Then all the people of the neighborhood of Gerasa asked him to go away from them, for they were terribly frightened. And he got into a boat and went back. The man out of whom the demons had gone begged to go with him, but Jesus sent him away, and said,

"Go back to your home, and tell all that God has done for you."

And he went and told all over the town what Jesus had done for him.

When Jesus returned, the people welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. And a man named Jarvis came up—he was leader of the synagogue—and he fell down at Jesus' feet and begged him to come to his house, because he had a only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was dying. As he was going, the crowd of people almost crushed him. And a woman who had had a hemorrhage for twelve years and whom nobody had been able to cure, came up behind him; and touched the tassel of his cloak, and the hemorrhage stopped at once. Jesus said,

A beautiful table, well appointed, and completely set with silver and cutglass, all of which is handled by the firm is an attractive feature.

The regular stock of Christmas jewelry is complete, several new shipments having been recently received. Gifts for the entire family are to be found here, and the

GERMAN MONEY
DRIVEN FROM PARIS STREETS

[By Associated Press]

PARIS, Dec. 19.—German banknotes, mostly in millions and billions, have been driven off the streets of Paris by the police. They were sold chiefly as souvenirs or given as premiums, but the city authorities discovered a war-time law forbidding traffic in foreign monies except under license, and they have applied it.

Just why this law should have been dug up now, after German currency had been circulating widely for several years, puzzled the curious, as they felt it to be quite worth while for the French to see to what depths the mark had fallen. The authorities, however, thought the influence of the depreciated German money was bad, for it could not stimulate the people's confidence in governments or currencies, even their own, to have before them the evidence of a once great nation in the depths of despair.

Daniel Hunsberger, a plumber of note in Glendale, has recently added several new men to his force in order to fill all of the contracts for high grade plumbing now held by him. Mr. Hunsberger's shop is located at his home, 414 West California, where a complete line of pipe and tools for all classes of rough plumbing are kept. The big specialty of this firm is job work by contract, but it also specializes in installing heaters, lawn sprinklers and other work along this line. Mr. Hunsberger is a plumber of long experience, both here and in the east, having been in business in Royersford, Penn., for 15 years before coming here in 1913, at which time he opened his present plumbing establishment. During his ten years of business in this city, hundreds of homes have been "plumbed" by him, and, according to his statement, he has not had a dissatisfied customer, his reliability and service building him a great business. His reputation for doing good work is one of his biggest assets.

Lewis easy payment plan makes it possible to give the best. The store will remain open evenings until Christmas, giving everyone ample time in which to shop.

MARION ELIZABETH HAT SHOP

Some people are born lucky, while others "get that way" during their life. Grace McCleery, proprietress of the Marion Elizabeth Hat shop in the Palace Grand building, does not know whether she was born with luck or whether she "just got that way." Anyway, her business is exceedingly gratifying, and her shop number is "13." This does not seem to make any difference, as the demand for fine millinery keeps her so busy that she hasn't time to become superstitious over the hoodoo number. A complete stock of high-grade hats has just been received from New York, and these are going on sale at special prices for the coming Christmas week. Included in this shipment are several new designs which are bound to please the most exacting woman. Every hat sold in this shop is strictly hand made, says Miss McCleery, this guaranteeing the best in workmanship, and the materials used are the best the eastern market affords.

Miss McCleery has enjoyed a very busy season since her opening last March and she owes her tremendous success to the public who have made favorable comment on the millinery bought, and the service maintained by her.

GLENDAL RECREATION CENTER

The Glendale Recreation Center, which occupies the entire basement of Jensen's Palace Grand building, is one of the most beautiful and up-to-date billiard and bowling parlors in the South, the decorations lending an Egyptian air to the room. The equipment is of the best, the standard Brunswick-Balke-Collender alleys and tables being used. The alleys have proven a great asset to the recreational side of the community, each lane being used during most of the day and evening. The seven pool tables, three billiard tables, and one for snooker are in almost constant use, members only being allowed to play pool. Anyone over 18 years of age is eligible to join the club, the rates of which are low.

Peter Neise, manager of the Center, is a bowling man of long experience, having had charge of several large alleys in the east. The local alleys are kept in the best of shape with constant polishing, and new pins, balls, etc., are received frequently.

NEW ESSEX CAUSING A SENSATION IN AUTO CIRCLES

The new Essex, A Six, has arrived in Glendale and will receive its initial demonstration in Glendale, Thursday and Friday of this week at the local Essex agency, 230 North Brand boulevard. This car, which is taking the country by storm, as it were, will doubtless prove as pronounced a sensation here as it has done elsewhere. A cordial invitation is being extended to the people of Glendale by the Kelley Motor company, local dealers, to see this car and witness what it can do.

"Essex car comfort," said Mr. Kelley this morning, "costs $170 less than ever before. Also at this lower price you get an even more attractive coach body and a six cylinder motor built on the principles of the famous Hudson Super-Six. Greater fuel economy is secured. The car is lighter, longer and roomier. You will agree that from the standpoint of appearance, delightful performance, cost and reliability, the new Essex provides ideal transportation."

The new Essex Six coach costs $975, while the touring is $850.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT IS PREVALENT AT THE NEW ENGLAND

The problem of what to give may readily be solved by a visit to this up-to-date store, where the display rooms are among the largest in the city. Small furniture novelties always make appropriate gifts, and the splendid suggestions in stock are very desirable presents. A recent shipment of both floor and table lamps created a small overstocked condition, and this excess supply is to be sold out during the remaining four days of the 1923 Christmas season at reduced prices. Other "giveable" articles in the store are small tables, smoking stands, rugs, over-stuffed sofas, book-ends, cedar chests and a great variety of articles in that class.

FRENCH CRUISER IN HARBOR AT SAN PEDRO

SAN PEDRO, Dec. 19.—The light armored cruiser Jeanne D'Arc, bearing French naval midshipmen, arrived here today from Brest, France, bound to San Francisco and Seattle and thence to Honolulu. Warships of the United States fleet thundered a salute while the visiting warship rendered two salutes, one to the United States and one to Admiral S. S. Robinson, commander of American naval forces in the Pacific.

OVER A MILLION EX-SERVICE MEN TO VOTE IN PEACE AWARD

How the ex-service man is going to vote in the January "referendum" is a matter of more than ordinary interest, as shown by the numerous inquiries on this subject received by the American Peace Award. Both the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars are included in the ninety national organizations of the Co-operating Council of the American Peace Award, and both have made arrangements to submit the winning plan to their members for a vote.

The representatives of the American Legion who are in charge of the referendum on the award are Adjutant Lemuel Bolles of Indianapolis; John G. Emery, a past commander of Grand Rapids; General George Albert Wingate of New York.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars are represented by Adjutant Reuel Elton and Colonel Robert Allyn. The January issue of Foreign Service, the publication of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will print the winning plan and carry the ballot on which its readers will state whether or not they approve the winning plan in substance. Members will return the ballot directly to the office of the Peace Award.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars have also made arrangements to send out the plan in memorandum form to their local posts, with a request that it be read at post meetings and a vote taken by posts. The American Legion Weekly will carry the ballot, and since this publication goes widely to members of the Legion over the country, it will furnish an excellent medium through which "Legionnaires" may vote. In addition to the plans for the "referendum" being made by the American Legion through its national headquarters, a number of the state departments have communicated directly with the award and have made arrangements to send individual copies of the plan, accompanied by the ballot, directly to their posts in sufficient quantities for every member to have one. The Massachusetts department has arranged to do this. The South Dakota department has arranged to print the plan in its bulletin and have it discussed at post meetings. The Kansas department has sent a special bulletin on the subject to all post commanders.

The Wisconsin department will print the winning plan and the ballot in the Badger Legionaire. The Nebraska department is publishing the plan in its state bulletin and also writing to each post, urging action by posts. The New York department has arranged to distribute the plans and ballots at meetings, and states that it will "prepare the local posts for discussion." The Utah department has made arrangements to get in touch with every Legion member in the state.

The Missouri department wrote to the committee: "We assure you of our co-operation to the point of conflict with other local matters which may be under way." The commander is urging each member in the 378 posts of the state to read the plan and vote intelligently.

In the department of North Carolina the "referendum" will be taken through the posts. The department of Oklahoma will print a preliminary announcement to prepare their members, and will print the plan with the ballot in their department newspaper in January.

The department of Indiana, with 350 posts, will carry a preliminary announcement in their bulletin, and will circularize their entire membership with the copies of the winning plan and ballot in January. Commander Ball writes to the committee in charge of the award: "Of course, all the men who took part in the last war are vitally interested in this. We have all been looking forward to the outcome of this contest, and hope that some plan may be evolved which may further the approach of world peace."

The department of North Dakota has outlined a very definite procedure for taking the "referendum" of its members. The department secretary-treasurer, Abbey M. Hurley, will write a letter to the president of each of his local units, and the "referendum" will be conducted also by unit meetings.

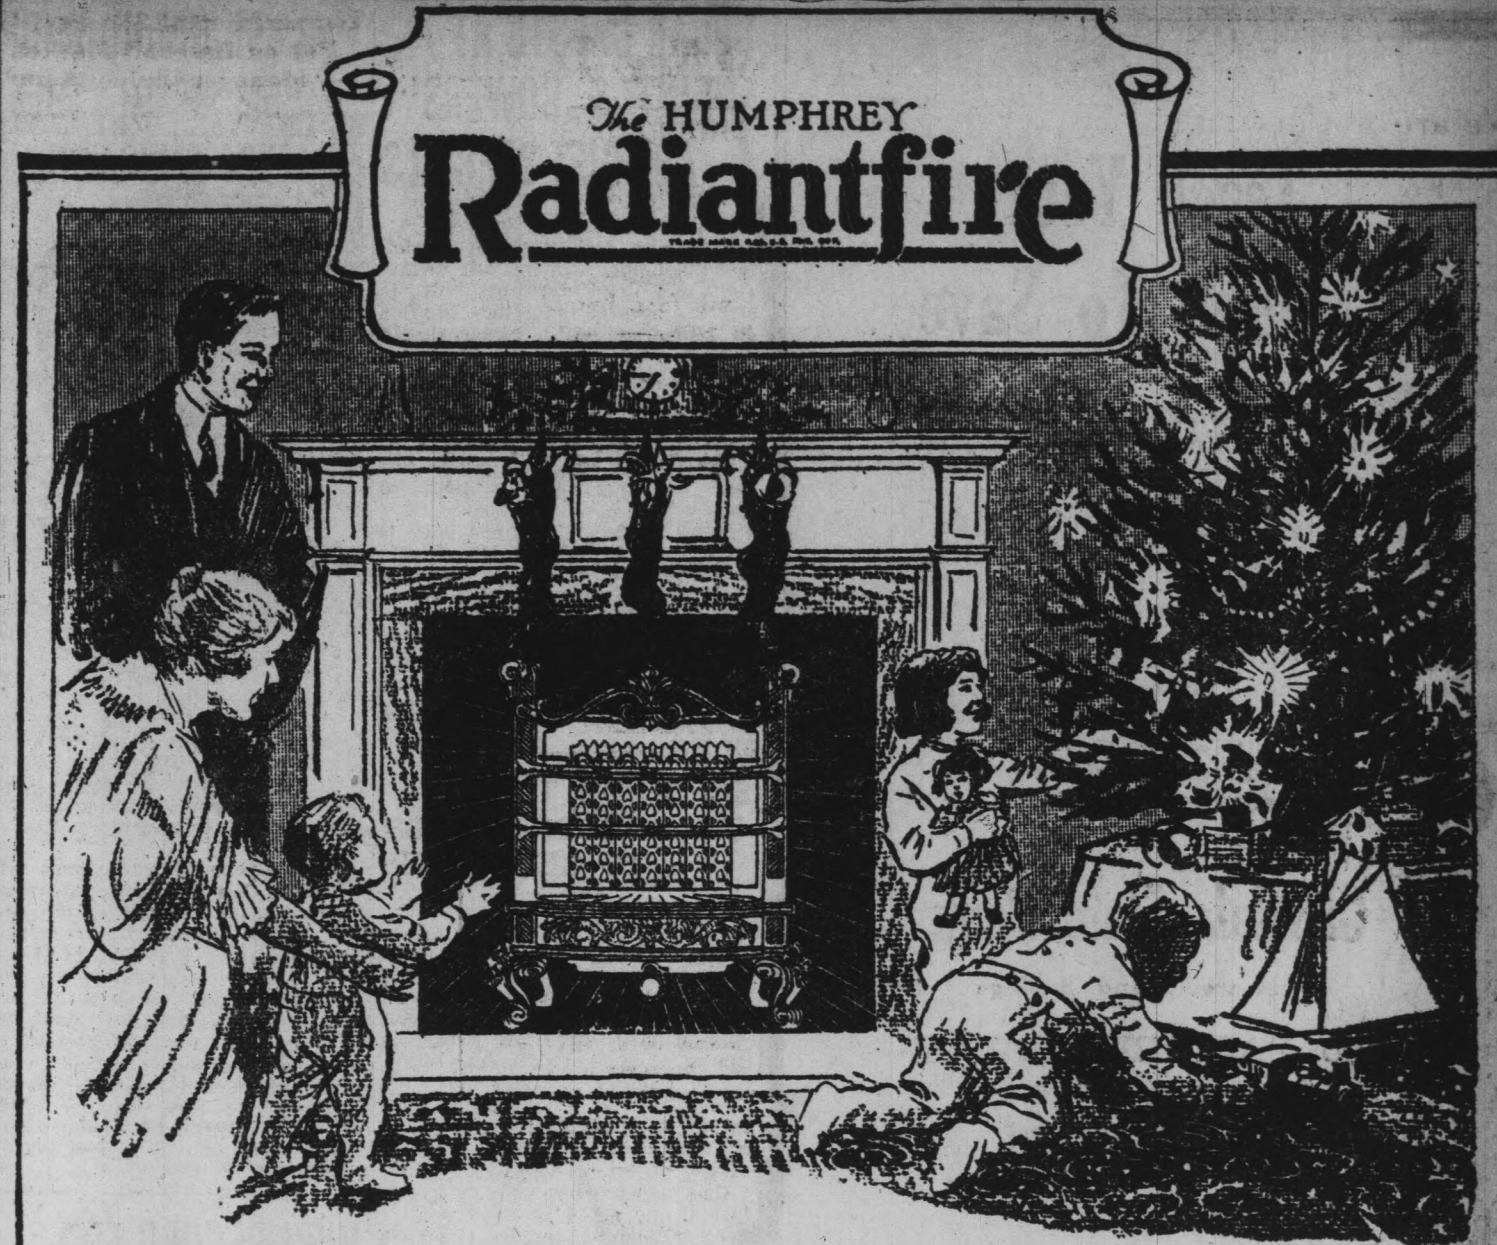

The department of Georgia has made its arrangements for taking the "referendum." It will publish the plan in its bulletin of January 15, and will prepare its members by advance information before that time.

Throughout the progress of the award, the committee in charge has noticed continually the particular and active interest of ex-service men. There can be no doubt that the coming "referendum" will be carried through intensively among the veterans of the late war, in every state.

The barrister was severely cross-examining the unfortunate witness. "You must answer my questions, 'Yes' or 'No,' he thundered. It's no good saying, 'I suppose.' Why, I supposed I had my watch in my pocket when I left home this morning; but as a matter of fact, I find that I left it on the dressing-table. Now, sir, let us have no more walking round the question."

The case came to an end, and in the evening the learned counsel returned home.

"My dear," said his wife, as they sat down to supper. "You must have wanted your watch badly. No less than three men called and said you had sent them for it. I gave it to the first one. I thought it must be all right, because he described exactly where you had left it."

MONTROSE NOTES

This evening at 8 o'clock George Charbonneau of Montrose and Miss Cecil Mathews of Eagle Rock will be united in marriage. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's aunt in Los Angeles. Following the wedding the couple will depart on a short honeymoon, returning to Montrose before the first of the year. They will reside in their charming new home on Crescent avenue which Mr. Charbonneau purchased recently for his bride.

For ex-service men and their ladies this evening will be a red letter night. It is the occasion of the first big "jolly-up" of the newly formed Verdugo Hills American Legion post, and will take place in the Sparr Heights community house. A short business session will be held which will be followed by an interesting and varied program, and dancing. Every ex-service man and woman is invited whether a member of the post or not. It is going to be a merry, merry affair, according to those in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Clyde Sanderson is suffering with a badly sprained ankle. She fell Saturday and injured the right ankle, breaking three small blood vessels in the foot. Immediate attention saved her from a good deal of future trouble and pain.

Mr. M. S. Hawley, president of the Montrose Athletic club, announces that the meeting of the club will be held on Thursday evening of this week instead of Friday, which is the regular meeting night. This was arranged in order that members may attend the Montecito club dance on Friday.

Grant McCormick, local barber, has added another chair to his establishment and has secured the services of a second barber. Good news to the men who have sometimes had to wait while several others "took their turn."

STUDENTS TURN TO VARIETY OF JOBS TO GET MONEY

[By Associated Press]

NEW YORK, Dec. 19.—Columbia University this year has provided jobs for 2,357 students, of whom 777 are women, according to a report of Miss Ethel A. Breed, in charge of the appointments office. The records showed that men students earned money in 72 different ways, excluding those listed as miscellaneous. Women students earned money in 41 ways.

One man underwent blood transfusion, one acted as life-guard, 11 were pullman conductors, two were models, 144 were waiters, one was a furnace man, 20 did manual labor, 90 occupied clerical positions, 12 were employed by a detective agency as plain clothes men, 32 were paymasters, 145 were proctors, 30 were translators, and two were umpires.

The list also included one actor, one publicity agent, 12 inspectors, one minister, two hospital superintendents, three elevator operators, two hotel clerks, one garage assistant, 31 messengers, seven chauffeurs, six caretakers, four camp waiters, six bank clerks, one bell boy, 29 companions, two janitors, five lawyers, six librarians, 133 post office clerks, 11 research workers, 136 ushers, 19 watchers at the polls, 262 tutors, 14 musicians, seven settlement workers, 62 salesmen and 46 traffic counter workers.

Two women students were athletic coaches; four attendants for actresses; one a biscuit packer; 27 governesses; 139 stenographers; three tea room assistants; 152 did clerical work; 43 were mothers' helpers; five companions; one a cloakroom attendant; five Sunday school teachers; ten secretaries, and one a seamstress.

JAPAN'S SHORE LINE INCREASED BY EARTHQUAKE

[By Associated Press]

TOKIO, Dec. 19.—Japan's area has been considerably extended as a result of the earthquake. There has been a marked change in the shore line of the Miura and Izu peninsulas which form Sagami Bay, the center of the disturbance. According to experts the bay is many fathoms deeper and along the shores rocks heretofore immersed are showing, forming small islands, while residences built on the seashore have considerable stretches of land between them and the sea which, when reclaimed, will be of great value.

The admiralty boats have been out for some weeks now preparing new charts of Sagami Bay and surrounding waters. New charts of Tokyo Bay also have been completed.

The meteorological officials find that the land rose to the extent of nine feet on Miura and parts of Boso peninsulas and at Choshi, at the mouth of the Tone river, north of Tokyo, and about eight feet at Oiso on Izu peninsula. On the other hand the earth has settled at Inatori, a village at the extreme southern end of Boso peninsula, and at Oshima or Vries island, just opposite Inatori.

AUSTRIA DECLINES PART IN OLYMPICS

VIENNA, Dec. 19.—It is not likely that Austria will participate in the Olympic games of 1924 at Paris. At a recent meeting of the central committee of general sports organizations ambiguous resolutions were adopted in reply to the invitation from the French committee arranging for the games.

The resolutions in effect were a refusal to participate on the grounds that the invitation was received only recently, that their "German brothers" had not been invited, and finally the matter of expense.

MR. WITOS HAS BURIED HATCHET

[By Associated Press]

Temperamental Shocker Put on Baseball Market, Manager Sisler Admits

That Urban Shocker, star pitcher of the St. Louis American League team and one of the best pitchers in the country, is not in good standing with his St. Louis associates is shown by the announcement by George Sisler, the new manager, that he would not "stand in the way" of Shocker if he wishes to go to another club. After Shocker had won 20 games he demanded that his wife be allowed to travel with him. This was against club rules and the demand was refused.

HIGH RECORD FOR SHIPMENTS OF FRESH FRUITS

Interesting facts concerning the transportation of Pacific Coast fruits to markets in eastern states were brought out at a hearing just concluded before Examiner E. M. Steer of the Interstate Commerce Commission at San Francisco. The hearing, regarding deciduous fruit rates developed the following:

Train charts showed that on the basis of 100 net ton miles, the cost for wages to crews of fruit train service was 96 per cent in excess of that for local freight trains.

One Southern Pacific tabulation revealed that deciduous fruits were transported from Roseville, Calif., to Ogden on a 55 hour schedule which was 26 per cent faster than the 69 hour and 25 minute schedule for manifest freight.

A total of 14.9 net tons of fruit were handled per gallon of fuel oil consumed by the locomotives, while for manifest freight the tonnage was 22.3 per gallon of fuel oil. The average cost of storing refrigerator cars by the Southern Pacific preparatory to the rush period for carrying fruits East was shown at $4.30 a car.

During the peak of the fruit season this year the percentage of refrigerator cars sent west empty through Ogden ranged as high as 87.8 per cent in order to keep pace with demands for cars to move crops east.

California grapes are hauled an average of 2905 miles to market and other deciduous fruits an average of 2740 miles. This would place the bulk of the fruits in the states of New York and Pennsylvania.

The eighteen larger western railroads this year are earning a return of only 3.75 per cent on the value of their property held for and used in transportation service.

A net operating income of $745,515,000 would be necessary if the railroads of this country earned this year the 5 3/4 per cent permitted under the Transportation Act. Notwithstanding increased traffic, they will fall short of this income by about $200,000,000.

One exhibit detailed the number of employees, hours worked and compensation for the year 1915 and the year 1922. This compilation showed an increase of 123 per cent in rate of wages of all employees in 1922, as compared with 1915.

The total tax assessed against twenty-three leading railroads in 1910 was $60,401,109 and in 1922 the tax had increased to $191,822,953, or more than 217 per cent.

French Factory Boys' Industrial Courses

PARIS, Dec. 19.—The dearth of skilled workmen in France is causing a revival of the apprentice system in the form of training schools in factories. One of the most advanced of these is in a Paris automobile factory, where sons of employees are given a two-year course of lectures, demonstrations and experimental work, and finished off with a year in the shop doing a master's work.

The boys get alternative lessons in theory and practice, and are given a week or two at a time at some machine with the regular skilled operator. When they graduate they have had a rounded out experience which enables them to choose their future work with discrimination.

Somewhat similarly the theaters of Paris have established training courses for sceneshifters in several of the best equipped houses.

Think what it will mean to the housewife to be able to enjoy a real Christmas dinner without the trouble and time taken to prepare it. "This dinner will be complete, and the price will be consistent with the high quality and service maintained by the proprietors," says Mr. Edwards, "and the public is cordially invited to let us prepare their Christmas dinner."

League Interested In 50-50 Marriage

[By Associated Press]

GENEVA, Dec. 19.—Everybody connected with the League of Nations is interested in a pretty little romance between modest League workers which has joined together in matrimony the impoverished son of a former great Russian magnate and a beautiful young noblewoman, descendant of one of the oldest families of the former great Russian empire, both of them exiles from Russia as a result of the Soviet revolution.

M. Pastouhoff, the bridegroom, whose father was the fabulously wealthy owner of the Donetz coal mines in southern Russia, has a humble position as interpreter at the League and there he met and wooed Countess Ouharoff, of a family of ancient lineage, despoiled of title and fortune, who does not scorn to labor daily as typist and Slavic secretary in the political section.

Wedded, both these young Russians will continue their League work, for the countess must support her aged grandmother, now an exile in Jugoslavia.

By FRANCIS W. READ

Walter Camp has spoken. "The Grand Old Man of Football" has selected his all-American team for 1923. His selection, however, will not be entirely satisfactory to fans of this neck of the woods, for he has deliberately passed up the west in choosing his three teams as has every other so-called critic this year and every year before. But two westerners received places on the three teams to be selected, and these two were placed on the third team. They were Stow Beam, California, at tackle, and Ernie Nevers of Stanford at fullback. In his honorable mention list, which numbers nearly one hundred names, Camp places only five westerners. They are Norman Anderson of U. S. C. at tackle, Babe Horrell of California at center, Scotch Campbell of Stanford at quarter, Bill Blewett of California at halfback, and Jack Witter of California at fullback. Rather a paltry showing for the west out of nearly a hundred names, is it not?

The great Don Nichols, captain of the California eleven this year, and placed on the first team picked by Thorpe, was omitted from even the honorable mention list. Terbeau, Wilson and Zeal of the University of Washington, the three best men on the eleven that will represent the west on New Year's day, were not listed. It seems that Camp deliberately passed up the west in selecting his team. How else can you account for his selection? The class of football played in the west this year has been if anything superior to that played in the east. The greatest defensive record of the season was hung up by California, with but seven points scored against the Bears during the entire season. It was the west that opened the eyes of the football public to the real football strategy, the famous trick plays such as the pass on drop kick formation, fake crossbar for a touchdown, and numerous others. The brain of Andy Smith devised these plays and used them for all they were worth and the Bears went through the season undefeated, yet Camp does not place one man on the first team. U. S. C., the only team to score on California during the entire season, certainly put up a great game of football all year, and possessed many individual stars, and yet the Trojans had only one man on the honorable mention roll. Stanford, one of the greatest elevens on the coast, has two men in the selection of a hundred names, and Washington, the runner-up in the conference, was completely ig-

Giving your Golf Troubles
By Jim Barnes

Dear Mr. Barnes: How can I cure a habit that I have formed of swinging my body around toward the left at the finish of the swing? I constantly do this on anything like a full swing, and it frequently results in a wide slice, and also I am convinced that it deprives me distance on my shots.

E. C. H.

Answer: Improper distribution of your weight at the top of the swing is no doubt largely responsible for your trouble. You are shifting too much weight back on the right foot at that point. You should bear in mind that at the top of the swing, the big toe of the left foot ought to be carrying quite an appreciable part of the weight.

If you will watch, you will usually see the good players feeling, as it were, with the toes of the left foot for a kind of grip in the address, and when they get to the top of the swing it is easy to see that considerable weight is resting there.

Also you are probably teeing the ball a little too far forward, so that you are hitting it after the club has reached the lowest point on the downswing and has started up again. Try teeing the ball a little further back toward the right, and then hit the ball before the club has reached its lowest point—in other words, with a descending blow. Then make a practice of trying to send the clubhead out after the ball, keeping it low along the ground.

If you bear in mind the point about keeping the weight more forward on the left foot at the top of the swing, you will be able to do this, and to avoid the tendency of swinging the body around to the left.

At the same time Yale, Harvard, Penn State, Cornell, Michigan, Illinois, Minnesota, Vanderbilt, Rutgers, Syracuse, West Virginia, Washington and Jefferson, Lafayette, Notre Dame, Dartmouth, Colgate and numerous others with teams a few of which played good football, but most of which were indifferent or decidedly poor, are placed ahead of California, Stanford, Washington and U. S. C. All four of these teams played wonderful football during the season just passed.

There is only one excuse for Walter Camp's selection, and that is that he does not know the western players. He sees the easterners perform and those that he does not see he hears about from other critics or reads about in the papers. With the westerners, it is different. It has to be a very exceptional westerner to get his name in print east of the Missis-

FRESHMAN QUINTET OF U. S. C. DEFEATS INGLEWOOD OUTFIT

Coach Leo Calland's U. S. C. freshman basketball five made it two victories in two days by downing the Inglewood high quintet 38 to 8 in a lopsided game played yesterday in the Trojan pavilion. The shooting of the two red haired frosh forwards, Badgro and Dales, featured. Badgro scored 20 of his team's points, while Dales made 12. McCandless and William made frosh played a defensive game, allowing Inglewood only nine shots at baskets in the first half. Monday the Trojan babes trimmed Lincoln, 38 to 11. The score yesterday:

issippi. The east is so jealous of the west that the western players of remarkable ability receive no attention whatsoever in the eastern papers. Consequently Walter Camp does not know the brand of football played in the west or the type of players produced here.

The first team is chosen, with a couple of exceptions, from the championship elevens of the east, but the other two teams are from decidedly inferior elevens. On the second team, imagine placing men on inferior teams before players like Horrell, great California center, or Don Nichols, the California halfback and captain.

BIG CHRISTMAS CARD AT BURBANK FOR "SANTA" FUND

By A. E. MCCOUBREY

Christmas is coming, with its joys and sorrows, bringing gladness and delight to hundreds of kiddies in this great San Fernando valley, but to those who are less fortunate than the majority, those whose wants are acute, the great machine of human kindness and endeavor will work overtime to bring to the needy, Christmas cheer. Burbank, like other cities, has its quota, though not large, yet the want is manifest and so the local police department, the Goodfellows' club and Al Barton have united in a big effort to gather funds with which to bring Santa Claus to the homes of the needy kids of Burbank.

The program as arranged by Al Barton, matchmaker and promoter of the Burbank Athletic club, to be staged tomorrow night at the Burbank armory under the auspices of the police department and the Goodfellows, will be unique inasmuch as the talent as gathered will be the best yet offered the fans and as several well-known followers of the manly art will be present to participate in this show of shows. Heading the list will be the well-known Jim Jefferies, former heavyweight champion of the world, who now resides in Burbank. Big Jim has promised to referee one of the bouts. "Wad" Wadhams of Vernon fame, Tom Kennedy, well known matchmaker of Hollywood, Mike Collins, who was responsible for the Dempsey-Gibbons match at Shelby last summer, all have promised to trek out to Burbank tomorrow night and help put the show over. The complete doings will be "shot" by a camera man and thrown on the screen of practically all theaters of the country and Lee Roy Kippnick, International photographer to the press, will also take pictures to be published in the leading sport magazines of the east.

LEGION FIVE TO PLAY BANKERS TOMORROW

Although the Metropolitan post, which was scheduled to play the local American Legion team tomorrow night in a Legion league game has forfeited to Glendale, the quintet from the local post will be in action tomorrow night. A game has been scheduled with the Hellman bank five of Los Angeles that should prove to be a corer.

The Hellman outfit is one of the speediest in this section and has not dropped a game as yet. Although the game will have no bearing on the standing in the American Legion league, it will furnish plenty of thrills. The game will be played in the High school gymnasium at 7:30 p. m. The locals now stand with two victories and no defeats in the Legion loop.

Lord Derby said that Gladstone's jokes were no laughing matter. "On one occasion, when being entertained by the head of a great condiment-making firm, he did, however, sum up the situation very neatly. A long string of Colmans having been led up to the introduced to him, the grand old man, as he sat down to dinner, said: 'I see we are all mustard here.'"

Topping the mitt card will be Harry Whitman and Kid George, two fast boys of 145 pounds, who will put four rounds of fast stuff over.

Gil Gallant and Larry Murray will stage a flashy go as both boys are fast and capable. Three other fast bouts are scheduled, all of which will be interesting.

Between bouts the Newsboys' quartet of Los Angeles will entertain with melodies galore. According to reports and from indications a full house will be registered. Remember the cause is most worthy and total receipts, according to Matchmaker Barton, will be used to bring joy this Christmas to the needy kiddies of Burbank.

TROJANS WILL NOT MEET NEBRASKA NEXT YEAR

Gloomy Gus Henderson's U. S. C. football team will not meet the University of Nebraska eleven in 1924. This final decision was reached last night in a meeting of the faculty board of U. S. C. after the Nebraska institution had refused to come west, but offered to play the Trojans in the east. The long trip was given as the reason for the refusal to meet the Cornhuskers. The U. S. C. schedule next season demands considerable traveling and it was felt that a long trip for an inter-sectional game would be out of the question. Nebraska, however, will be invited to come west in 1925 and 1926.

The proposition of sending the Trojans to Nebraska was considered after all negotiations looking to bringing Nebraska here next year had fallen through. The Cornhuskers, after failing to rearrange their schedule to permit them to come to Los Angeles next season, offered the counter proposal of taking the Trojans to Lincoln and then coming out here for the two succeeding years.

Explaining its action the athletic committee through Frank Hadlock, issued the following statement:

"Nebraska opened negotiations after the U. S. C. Pacific Coast conference schedule had been framed, which called for two long trips and which necessitates the team being away from study for more than a week.

"The Nebraska game would mean another week's trip and the faculty felt that it would jeopardize the team's scholastic standing.

"Nebraska is to be invited to play in 1925 and 1926, when the U. S. C. schedule will be framed that in the year they go to Nebraska they will not take long trips to the Northwest on the coast.

(Signed) "W. B. BOVARD, "Secretary Athletic Committee."

CHRISTMAS GAME TO BE PLAYED AT WASHINGTON PARK

Washington park and not the Coliseum, will be the scene of the Christmas day football game between the Haskell Indians and the Olympic club. The Community Development association in meeting yesterday, decided not to open the Coliseum to the contest.

Tickets for the game will be placed on sale tomorrow for $2 and $3. They will be sold at Spalding's, Dyas', Los Angeles Athletic club, Barker Brothers' in Los Angeles and the Kress Drug company in Hollywood.

John Levi of the Indian eleven will put on an exhibition of passing and punting before the game. Recently in an exhibition in New York before 50,000 persons Levi passed seventy-five yards and punted eighty-five. Sixty-five and seventy-five yards is his average distance during games.

If Brick Muller plays on the Olympic team an effort will be made to pull off some competition. Whether Muller will play for the Olympic club is as yet uncertain.

Both teams arrive in Los Angeles tomorrow. On December 27 they will be the guests of an interfraternity banquet at the Biltmore hotel. Walter Eckersall, famous football critic is on his way to Los Angeles to referee the game.

TROJAN QUINTET PLAYS REDLANDS OUTFIT TONIGHT

The University of Southern California varsity basketball squad hooks up with the Hollywood Baptist church quintet tonight at the U. S. C. pavilion in what is expected to result in a fast contest. The Trojans were originally scheduled to meet the Goodyear

PROHIBITION IS FRIEND OF LABOR SAYS AUTHORITY

A substantial part of the credit for the extraordinary development of the labor banking movement in this country during the last three and a half years is given by Richard Boeckel, a labor economist, in his new book "Labor's Money," to prohibition. Mr. Boeckel estimates the saving to American working men as a result of prohibition at one billion dollars a year. While a goodly part of this money has gone to provide improved living conditions for the families of American workers, millions of dollars have been invested by the workers in industrial securities and deposited as savings in labor banks. There are at present 15 labor banks in successful operation in the United States. Mr. Boeckel predicts that there will be 50 such banks, with resources exceeding $100,000,000 in operation before the end of 1924.

Mr. Boeckel's book brings out the fact that saving by the workers has been opposed in the past by some of the leaders of labor, just as prohibition has been opposed by these same trade union officials. The imagination of American working men has been caught, however, by the possibilities of the new financial movement, and it is going forward rapidly despite the opposition of some of labor's short-sighted leaders. Mr. Boeckel foresees a complete revolution in trade union methods as a result of the new movement.

"While the end sought," he says, "is as revolutionary as any radical reformer could wish, the means for its achievement holds no threat of industrial disruption or public disorder. The movement does not look to the overthrow of capitalism." On the contrary, it accepts the institutions of a capitalist society and seeks to work through capitalist methods, toward a new social order.

After citing the achievements of American labor in the financial field, a writer in the Socialist Review (London) calls upon British labor to do likewise. "America," he says, "has shown the way." America has shown the way also in enacting the prohibition amendment without which the labor banking movement in this country would not have reached its present proportions in so short a time.

ELIMINATION OF AUTO CAMP ASKED

ston, president; W. F. Sunday, secretary; M. W. Lee treasurer. The following committee was appointed to appear before the Glendale city council and to do everything possible to see that no action detrimental to the interests of the property owners of the Riverdale-San Fernando section is taken by that body: R. E. Johnston, W. F. Sunday, M. W. Lee, James F. Winnard and J. B. Finch.

In opening the meeting Mr. Johnston rehearsed the fight that he and L. H. Wilson had made to show the council that the camp was working a hardship on the property owners in its vicinity. He stated that the ownership of the camp had changed hands and that it is his understanding that the new owner intends to reestablish the camp in the very near future. Several alleged cases where owners of property living in the region of the camp had been unable to sell on account of the camp were rehearsed by those present.

MASS MEETING FOR SEWERS DRAWS BIG

two of the contract forever limits the expansion of Glendale. "I am in favor of sewers for Glendale," he exclaimed, "but I will not be stampeded." Sewage upon the surface of the ground is not unhealthful, in the opinion of Mr. Knox. He expressed his opinion that the only time it might be considered a real menace is when it comes in contact with the water supply. A challenge was laid down by Mr. Knox to any member of the city administration or Chamber of Commerce to an open debate upon annexation—provided that a full stenographic report should later be published.

"I do not believe that there is another city on the Pacific coast that is in as good a condition financially as Glendale," asserted Councilman Asa Hall in a brief speech. "I believe that if we vote the sewer bonds, Glendale will grow very much faster. The future health, happiness and prosperity of the people of this community and the growth of this city depend upon the voting of these bonds."

Strongest support for the bond issue was urged by Peter Hanson, president of the Realty board.

"If the vote on this bond issue should be 'no,' I would be very much concerned," he stated. "The next morning my telephone would be ringing almost continuously and people would be calling up to tell me to sell their property. 'Put the price down and let it go!'"

"On the other hand, if the bond issue is carried, people will be calling me up to instruct me to raise the price of their property. They will figure that it is worth just that much more."

"If I was so tremendously interested in the welfare of some other city, I would go to that city."

This assertion was greeted with applause. Capital which is needed for Glendale's development will be withheld, in Mr. Hanson's opinion, if a negative vote is registered.

BIRTH DECREASE SHOWN IN ENGLAND

[By Associated Press]

LONDON, Dec. 18.—Births in England and Wales are showing a decrease. The lowest rate of any third quarter, excepting during the war, has just been tabulated. During the three months ended Sept. 30 the births were 190,148, or 6,833 fewer than in the preceding quarter. Deaths also showed a decrease of 22,715.

Various Uses of Ribbons. Never were the ribbons so gorgeous as now, and their possibilities are endless. One of the shops is showing turbans and bags made of green and silver striped ribbon combined with cloth of silver. Also envelope bags of the wide ribbon striped in green and gold.

LET'S RELIEVE THE NEEDY IN OUR MIDST

tiny bones should be knitted into life-long permanency. "We hesitated to come at this time," declared Mr. Yoakum, "but if we had not come, certain conditions would have made the trip impossible for another year. We feared that it would be too late then."

Despite the fact that living expenses and doctor bills had depleted the family treasury to the extent of $3000 during the past year and very little capital remained, they decided to make the trip immediately.

The family automobile, a remarkable touring car, scarcely able to wheeze, was gotten ready and the children were loaded into it—as though for a lark.

Although several unexpected expenses were encountered en route, the trip was made without mishap and the family arrived in Southern California Thanksgiving day. Because Mrs. Yoakum had an aunt by marriage here, they came to Glendale.

For a time they stopped at one of the local auto camps. However, accommodations were lacking for so many children, and it was necessary to secure other quarters. After searching the town thoroughly, a four-room shack was located at 1210 East Lexington drive and payment of $30 was made for a month's rent.

Although this house was absolutely devoid of furniture, Mr. and Mrs. Yoakum had no money with which to furnish it. The chill morning air penetrated the frame structure as though it had been tissue paper. With almost their last cent, a small second hand heater was purchased. It soon added a warmth and cheerfulness to the home. However, the nights seemed unusually long—especially as ten persons had only one flimsy mattress spread upon the floor to sleep upon. Covers also were scanty.

When the family's resources were at their lowest ebb, Saturday, Frank, their oldest boy, secured work on Brand boulevard paving sidewalks. Although he is only fifteen years of age, he worked so diligently that he was able to earn $2.50. Since then he has been working at odd jobs.

To cap the climax, yesterday morning a ninth baby was born. Fortunately, Mrs. W. L. Sinclair of 1226 East Lexington drive, treasurer of the Glendale Welfare board, heard of the impending visit of the stork. When the facts were explained to neighbors they immediately proved their neighborliness. A brass bed and two chairs were taken to the home and additional clothing was provided.

With the exception of this furniture, the home is still unfurnished. A basket of groceries was delivered by the Glendale Welfare board. A five dollar bill was tendered by one neighbor while another do-plant, the first water is found at 40 feet below the surface. On the lower ground west of San Fernando road, was only 5 to 10 feet below the surface.

The cesspool liquids of the city drain into this underground water plane which slopes from the mountains to the river and wells are sunk into this water plane and take water therefrom. Consequently the continued use of cesspools and the dumping of sewage and liquid wastes into the ground on the upper slopes of the water-bearing ground and the drawing of water from the lower side, will eventually create a sort of a circulating system which will carry sewage-laden water into the city wells.

Each day Mr. Yoakum has tirelessly trapped Glendale and Los Angeles in search of employment. Although he is an expert bookkeeper and an all-round office man, he is willing to accept any employment no matter how menial or how long the hours or how small the pay for the sake of his wife and kiddies.

Deeply touched by the facts, City Manager W. H. Reeves this morning offered Mr. Yoakum work on a street gang as laborer. This has been accepted but inasmuch as Mr. Yoakum has not the physique of a laborer it is feared that he will not be able to stand such work. However, he stated that he would do the best he could and would not shirk.

Christmas will mean little to this family unless Glendale opens its heart.

BIGGEST CHRISTMAS CARD EVER MAILED

TIFLIS, Dec. 18.—Twenty-two thousands orphan children in the orphanages of the Russian Caucasus today completed the signing of the biggest Christmas card that has ever been put into the Russian mails. The "card" includes 225 sheets, each sheet containing nearly a hundred names.

The card is addressed to the whole American public and will be delivered to President Coolidge through the Washington office of Near East Relief. At the top of each page is the "Message of Greeting," which says: "We, the children of the American orphanages in the Russian Caucasus, send Christmas greetings to our friends in America, and ask that the loving and charitable generosity of America be continued yet a little longer. During the past two years 8000 children have been released from these orphanages and are now adopted into normal homes. The process is continuing, as Armenia progresses in her heroic and successful struggle to ward self-sustenance. We are leaning on you a little less heavily, but if the American orphanage work should cease now, the majority of us children would be doomed and a staggering economic blow would be administered to the whole Armenian people."

NEW FILTER TAKES COLOR FROM WINE

LONDON, Dec. 19.—Spectacular results in filtration have been obtained by a new invention of Doctor H. S. Hele-Shaw, who recently explained his method to members of the Royal society. The doctor has a stream-line filter along which liquids can be passed under pressure, through many thousands of tightly packed, perforated sheets of paper. He claims he has taken the color out of red wine and tea, and has extracted the color from milk and left a tasteless, fluid-like water.
